CASE NO. 2:18-cv-14371
ROSENBERG/MAYNARD

JOINT MOTION TO STAY PROCEEDINGS

Plaintiffs Ellen Berman and Dayana Guach (“Plaintiffs”) and Defendant General Motors LLC (“GM”) jointly move for an order (1) staying the proceedings in this case for a period of ninety (90) days (to allow for further settlement discussions) and (2) vacating GM’s current October 3, 2018 deadline for responding to the Complaint (to be reset if necessary once the stay is lifted), after representing as follows:

1. Plaintiffs filed their Complaint on September 10, 2018 (Dkt. No. 1), and GM was served with the Complaint on September 12, 2018 (Dkt. No. 4).
2. In addition to the instant action, similar purported class actions were previously filed against GM the United States District Court for the Northern District of California (Hindsman v. General Motors LLC, No. 17-cv-5337 (“Hindsman”)) on September 14, 2017 and in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois (Sanchez v. General Motors LLC, No. 18-cv-02536 (“Sanchez”)) on April 19, 2018. They purport to be class actions involving the same alleged defect in Chevrolet Equinoxes as in this action.

3. Some of the attorneys representing the putative class in this case are also counsel of record for the plaintiffs in Hindsman and Sanchez.

4. On August 29, 2018, the plaintiffs' counsel in Hindsman and Sanchez and counsel for GM attended a full-day mediation with the Honorable Jay Gandhi (Ret.) at the JAMS Resolution Center in Los Angeles and developed a tentative outline of key portions of a potential settlement. However, certain issues remain unresolved and the same counsel have scheduled a follow-up mediation with Judge Gandhi for November 7, 2018.

5. Given the progress on settlement, and in order to allow the parties to focus on further settlement discussions as opposed to spending resources on litigation, the parties herein respectfully request a ninety (90) day stay of the proceedings in this case.

6. The parties believe that there is good cause for the requested stay, it is not requested for purposes of delay, and no party will be prejudiced by the brief stay.

7. Similar stays have recently been entered by the courts in the Hindsman and Sanchez cases. See attached Exhibits A and B.

8. The parties further request that GM's current October 3, 2018 deadline for responding to the Complaint be vacated and removed from the Court's calendar without prejudice to being reset if necessary at the time the stay is lifted.

WHEREFORE, the parties jointly request that the Court enter an order (1) staying the proceedings in this case for a period of ninety (90) days and (2) vacating GM's current October 3, 2018 deadline for responding to the Complaint, with that deadline to be reset if necessary once the stay is lifted.

Dated: October 2, 2018

JOINT STIPULATION TO STAY THE CASE

19
 20
 21 WHEREAS, Defendant General Motors, LLC (“GM”) filed a motion to dismiss (Dkt. 59,
 22 the “Motion”) Plaintiffs’ Second Amended Complaint and the hearing on the motion is presently
 23 calendared on October 4, 2018, the same day as the scheduled Case Management Conference;

24 WHEREAS, Plaintiffs’ opposition to that Motion currently is due September 12, 2018;

25 WHEREAS, on August 29, 2018, the parties attended a full-day mediation with Hon. Jay
 26 Gandhi (Ret.) at the JAMS Resolution Center in Los Angeles and developed a settlement
 27 proposal that will require additional review by GM on or before September 30, 2018;

28

1           WHEREAS, the parties will know by September 30, 2018 if an additional mediation
2 session is warranted; if so, the parties will schedule it in October 2018, subject to Judge Gandhi's
3 calendar; if not, the parties will so advise the Court and request that the stay be lifted and
4 applicable dates be reset; and

5           WHEREAS, the parties jointly request a 90-day stay given the ongoing settlement
6 discussions and potential additional mediation, which, if granted on September 6, 2018, would
7 stay the case until December 5, 2018 absent further order of the Court,

8           IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED, by and between Plaintiffs and Defendant, by and
9 through their undersigned counsel of record, subject to the Court's approval, that the Court may 10 enter its order as follows:

- 11           1.       The case is stayed until December 5, 2018, pending further order of the Court;
- 12           2.       The hearing on GM's motion to dismiss plaintiffs' Second Amended Complaint
13 and the Case Management Conference scheduled for October 4, 2018 are removed from the 14 Court's calendar without prejudice to being re-set if and when the stay is lifted.
