	CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Zharia Charles ("Plaintiff") brings this action on behalf of herself, and all others similarly situated against Peek Travel, Inc. ("Defendant" or "Peek"). Plaintiff makes the following allegations pursuant to the investigation of their counsel and based upon information and belief, except as to the allegations specifically pertaining to themselves, which are based on personal knowledge.

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. For over a year, Defendant has been nickel and diming visitors of its various places of entertainment in New York in violation of the New York Arts and Cultural Affairs Law § 25.07(4) and New York General Business Law § 349. Defendant Peek is a software-as-a service company that integrates and designs a platform to purchase tickets to various places of entertainment located in New York, including the Color Factory NYC, the Museum of Ice Cream, the Inter_Intermersive Art Museum, or the ARTECHOUSE.

2. The purchase flow "powered by Peek.com" remains substantially the same across all places of entertainment that use Peek's ticket purchasing platform. Whenever a consumer selects an admission ticket on the website of these various places, she is quoted a fee-less price, only to be ambushed by non-delineated "fees" at checkout, after clicking through the various screens required to make a purchase. The fees are masked under the ambiguous category "Taxes & Fees," and Peek does not provide a breakdown of how much fees go to itself as opposed to the place of entertainment, nor does it explain what the fees are for.

3. To make matters worse, the websites often include a countdown timer for the consumer to complete the transaction. Because New York is a busy place, and because these "taxes & fees" are only flashed after a consumer selects her ticket, Defendant can plausibly put its consumers on a shot clock and tell them they need to act quick, because Defendant and these places of entertainment cannot hold their admission time slot open forever. This cheap trick has enabled Defendant to swindle substantial sums of money from its customers.

4. To stop this hustle, New York passed Arts and Cultural Affairs Law § 25.07(4), which provides that "every operator or every operator's agent of a place of entertainment ... or platform that facilitates the sale or resale of tickets ... shall disclose the total cost of the ticket, inclusive of all ancillary fees that must be paid in order to purchase the ticket." "Such disclosure of the total cost and fees shall be displayed in the ticket listing prior to the ticket being selected for purchase." Id. (emphasis added). And "[t]he price of the ticket shall not increase during the purchase process." Id. This latest version of the law went into effect August 29, 2022. *See*Exhibit A.

5. Moreover, Arts and Cultural Affairs Law § 25.07(4) provides that "every operator ... of a place of entertainment ... shall disclose in a clear and conspicuous manner the portion of the ticket price stated in dollars that represents a service charge, or any other fee or surcharge to the purchaser." Id.

6. For these reasons, Plaintiff seeks relief in this action individually, and on behalf of all other ticket purchasers for all places of entertainment in the state of New York that use
Defendant's ticket purchase platform, for actual and/or statutory damages, reasonable attorneys' costs and fees, and injunctive relief under New York Arts and Cultural Affairs Law § 25.33 and New York General Business Law § 349.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d) because there are more than 100 class members, and the aggregate amount in controversy exceeds $5,000,000.00, exclusive of interest, fees, and costs, and at least one class member is a citizen of a state different from Defendant. Defendant sold at least 100,000 tickets to its place of entertainment through its website during the applicable class period, and is liable for a minimum of fifty dollars in statutory damages for each ticket sold.

8. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant because Defendant is headquartered in San Francisco, California.

9. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because Defendant's Color Factory NYC is located in this District.

NEW YORK ARTS & CULTURAL AFFAIRS LAW

37. Effective August 29, 2022, New York enacted Arts & Cultural Affairs Law § 25.07(4), which provides that "[e]very operator or operator's agent of a place of entertainment... or platform that facilitates the sale or resale of tickets shall disclose the total cost of the ticket, inclusive of all ancillary fees that must be paid in order to purchase the ticket, and disclose in a clear and conspicuous manner the portion of the ticket price stated in dollars that represents a service charge, or any other fee or surcharge to the purchaser. Such disclosure of the total cost and fees shall be displayed in the ticket listing prior to the ticket being selected for purchase." Id. (emphasis added). And "[t]he price of the ticket shall not increase during the purchase process." Id.; Compare with Figures 2 through 6, Figures 8 through 13, and Figures 15 through 18.

38. Shortly after the law was enacted, ticketing websites peppered the State of New York's Division of Licensing Services with questions about the scope of the law. As explained by the Division of Licensing Services, "the ticket purchasing process begins once a consumer visits a ticket marketplace and first sees a list of seat prices." See N.Y. Dep't of State, Div. Licens. Servs., Request for Additional Guidance – New York State Senate Bill S.9461, attached hereto as Exhibit
A, at 1. "From the moment the prospective purchaser assesses the [] ticket lists through the final payment ... there should be no price increases to the purchaser for the ticket itself." Id. "When a prospective purchaser selects a ticket with full disclosure of the ticket price, the purchaser should not then have to search for the total price of the ticket as the purchaser proceeds through the purchasing process, it should continue to be readily available to the purchaser." Id. at 2 (emphasis) added). "In short, the ticket listing must include the total cost of the ticket, with a breakdown of all service charges, fees and surcharges, that the purchaser must pay just to purchase the ticket." Id. (emphasis added).

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

39. Nationwide Class: Plaintiff seeks to represent a class defined as all individuals in the United States who purchased tickets to places of entertainment in located New York state which used screens which were "powered by Peek.com" or otherwise created in part by Defendant on or after August 29, 2022. Excluded from the Nationwide Class is any entity in which Defendant has a controlling interest, and officers or directors of Defendant.

40. New York Subclass: Plaintiff seeks to represent a class defined as all individuals in New York who purchased tickets to who purchased tickets to places of entertainment in located New York state which used screens which were "powered by Peek.com" or otherwise created in part by Defendant on or after August 29, 2022. Excluded from the Nationwide Class is any entity in which Defendant has a controlling interest, and officers or directors of Defendant.

41. Members of the Nationwide Class and New York Subclass are so numerous that their individual joinder herein is impracticable. On information and belief, members of the Nationwide Class and New York Subclass are at least in the hundreds of thousands. The precise number of Nationwide Class and New York Subclass members and their identities are unknown to Plaintiff at this time but may be determined through discovery. Nationwide Class and New York Subclass members may be notified of the pendency of this action by mail, email, and/or publication through the distribution records of Defendant.

42. Common questions of law and fact exist as to all Nationwide Class and New York
Subclass members and predominate over questions affecting only individual Nationwide Class and New York Subclass members. Common legal and factual questions include, but are not limited to:
(a) whether Defendant failed to disclose the total cost of the ticket, including all ancillary fees, prior to the tickets being selected for purchase in violation of New York Arts & Cultural Affairs

Law § 25.07(4); (b) whether the displayed price of Defendant's tickets increases during the purchase process in violation of New York Arts & Cultural Affairs Law § 25.07(4); (c) whether Defendant failed to disclose its ancillary fees in a clear and conspicuous manner in violation of New York Arts & Cultural Affairs Law § 25.07(4); (d) whether Defendant's labeling of various fees under the label "Taxes & Fees" is misleading and violates the New York General Business Law § 349.

43. The claims of the named Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Nationwide Class and New York Subclass in that the named Plaintiff and the Nationwide Class and New York
Subclass sustained damages as a result of Defendant's uniform wrongful conduct, based upon Defendant's failure to disclose the total cost of its tickets, including Defendant's ancillary fees, throughout the online ticket purchase process.

44. Plaintiff is an adequate representative of the Nationwide Class and New York
Subclass because her interests do not conflict with the interests of the Nationwide Class and New York Subclass members she seeks to represent, she have retained competent counsel experienced in prosecuting class actions, and she intends to prosecute this action vigorously. The interests of Nationwide Class and New York Subclass members will be fairly and adequately protected by Plaintiff and her counsel.

45. The class mechanism is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims of Nationwide Class and New York Subclass members. Each individual Nationwide Class and New York Subclass member may lack the resources to undergo the burden and expense of individual prosecution of the complex and extensive litigation necessary to establish Defendant's liability. Individualized litigation increases the delay and expense to all parties and multiplies the burden on the judicial system presented by the complex legal and factual issues of this case. Individualized litigation also presents a potential for inconsistent or contradictory judgments. In contrast, the class action device presents far fewer management difficulties and provides the benefits of single adjudication, economy of scale, and comprehensive supervision by a single court on the issue of Defendant's liability. COUNT I New York Arts & Cultural Affairs Law § 25.07 (On Behalf Of The Nationwide Class and New York Subclass)

46. Plaintiff repeats the allegations contained in the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

47. Plaintiff brings this claim individually and on behalf of the members of the Nationwide Class and New York Subclass against Defendant.

48. Defendant is an "operator's agent of a place of entertainment" because Defendant works on the behest of operators of places of entertainment, including but not limited to, Color Factory, LLC (which operates the Color Factory NYC), 1AND8, Inc. (which operates the Museum of Ice Cream NYC), Inter_Iam, Inc. (which operates Inter_Intermersive Art Museum), and ATH NY CM LLC (which operates the ARTECHOUSE NYC).

49. Defendant is an "Platform that facilitates the sale or resale of tickets" because Defendant provides the website screens through which consumers to various places of entertainment sell tickets, as shown in the examples in the complaint.

50. Color Factory NYC is a "place of entertainment." "Place of entertainment' means any privately or publicly owned and operated entertainment facility such as a theatre, stadium, arena, racetrack, museum, amusement park, or other place where performances, concerts, exhibits, athletic games or contests are held for which an entry fee is charged." N.Y. Arts & Cult. Aff. Law § 25.03(6) (emphasis added).

51. The Museum of Ice Cream NYC is a "place of entertainment." "Place of entertainment' means any privately or publicly owned and operated entertainment facility such as a theatre, stadium, arena, racetrack, museum, amusement park, or other place where performances, concerts, exhibits, athletic games or contests are held for which an entry fee is charged." N.Y. Arts & Cult. Aff. Law § 25.03(6) (emphasis added).

52. Inter_Intermersive Art Museum is a "place of entertainment." "'Place of entertainment' means any privately or publicly owned and operated entertainment facility such as a theatre, stadium, arena, racetrack, museum, amusement park, or other place where performances, concerts, exhibits, athletic games or contests are held for which an entry fee is charged." N.Y. Arts & Cult. Aff. Law § 25.03(6) (emphasis added).

53. ARTECHOUSE is a "place of entertainment." "Place of entertainment' means any privately or publicly owned and operated entertainment facility such as a theatre, stadium, arena, racetrack, museum, amusement park, or other place where performances, concerts, exhibits, athletic games or contests are held for which an entry fee is charged." N.Y. Arts & Cult. Aff. Law § 25.03(6) (emphasis added).

54. Defendant violated New York Arts & Cultural Affairs Law § 25.07(4) by failing to disclose the "total cost of a ticket, inclusive of all ancillary fees that must be paid in order to purchase the ticket" after a ticket is selected, as depicted in Figures 2 through 6, Figures 8 through 13, and Figures 15 through 18 of this Complaint.

55. Defendant also violated New York Arts & Cultural Affairs Law § 25.07(4) by increasing the total cost of its tickets during the purchase process, as depicted in Figures 2 through 6, Figures 8 through 13, and Figures 15 through 18 of this Complaint.

56. Defendant also violated New York Arts & Cultural Affairs Law § 25.07(4) by failing to "disclose in a clear and conspicuous manner the portion of the ticket price stated in dollars that represents a service charge, or any other fee or surcharge to the purchaser," as depicted in Figures 6, 13, and 18 of this Complaint.

57. Everything above 8.875% of the ticket price of Defendant's "Taxes & Fees" is an "ancillary fee[] that must be paid in order to purchase the ticket." N.Y. Arts & Cult. Aff. Law § 25.07(4).

58. On or about October 29, 2023, Plaintiff Charles purchased two admission tickets to the Color Factory NYC and was forced to pay ancillary fees to Defendant. The fees were displayed as "Taxes and Fees." Assuming Defendant levied an 8.875% sales and use tax, Plaintiff paid fees of approximately $11.38.

59. Plaintiff was harmed by paying these unlawful fees. These fees were unlawful because the total cost was not disclosed to Plaintiff at the beginning of the purchase process, in violation of New York Arts & Cultural Affairs Law § 25.07(4), the fees were not clearly and conspicuously disclosed on the final checkout page in violation of New York Arts & Cultural Affairs Law § 25.07(4), and the fees were unreasonable premiums under New York Arts & Cultural Affairs Law § 25.29.

9 60. Plaintiff was also harmed by not having the total cost of her tickets disclosed
10 upfront at the start of the purchase process. By not knowing the total cost of her tickets before 11 Plaintiff selected their tickets for purchase from Defendant, Plaintiff could not shop around for 12 tickets from other sellers like Trip Advisor or Expedia, just to name a few. See, e.g.,

17 ates%20of%20America&startDate=2024-07-04&endDate=2024-07-18&rid=129440. As such,

Plaintiff had no way of knowing whether she was getting the best deal her money could buy. By hiding its fees, Defendant was able to reduce price competition and cause consumer harm to consumers like Plaintiff.

61. At the time Plaintiff purchased her tickets, she was not aware that Defendant's fees were unlawful under the New York Arts & Cultural Affairs Law. She was not a "website tester" browsing websites in search of legal violations. Plaintiff was instead browsing the websites because she sincerely intended to purchase tickets to a place of entertainment, and she did, in fact, purchase those tickets.

1	62. On behalf of herself and members of the Nationwide Class and New York Subclass,
2	Plaintiff seeks to recover her actual damages or fifty dollars, whichever is greater, and reasonable
3	attorneys' fees. See N.Y. Arts & Cult. Aff. Law § 25.33.
4	COUNT II Violation of Converse Parsings Law $ 240
5	Violation of General Business Law § 349 (On Behalf Of The New York Subclass)
6	63. Plaintiff repeats the allegations contained in the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set
7	forth herein.
8	64. Plaintiff brings this claim individually and on behalf of the members of the
9	Nationwide Class and New York Subclass against Defendant.
10	65. New York's General Business Law § 349 prohibits deceptive acts or practices in the
11	conduct of any business, trade, or commerce.
12	66. Defendant committed deceptive acts and practices by misleadingly and deceptively
13	obscuring the itemization of the extra charges it adds to its ticket prices, and masking its fees under
14	the category "Taxes & Fees." On some websites, like that of the Color Factory, LLC, consumers
15	like Plaintiff Charles had no way of discovering how much went to taxes as opposed to fees. On
16	other websites, like that of the Museum of Ice Cream NYC or the Inter_Intermersive Art Museum,
17	consumers needed to click on the small "?" button to discover how much went to fees, and even
18	then, Defendant failed to disclosed how much it collected in fees as opposed to how much the
19	operator of the place of entertainment collected in fees.
20	67. Defendant committed deceptive acts and practices by misleadingly and deceptively
21	hiding its "fees" under the label "Taxes & Fees."
22	68. Defendant's deceptive acts and practices were directed at consumers.
23	69. Defendant's deceptive acts and practices are misleading in a material way because
24	they deliberately make the itemization of extra charges harder to find, and fundamentally
25	misrepresent the additional costs imposed by Defendant on museum goers by masking Defendant's
26	"fees" as, in part, a tax on the ticket purchase.
27
28

1	70.	As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's false, misleading, and deceptive
2	representatio	ns, Plaintiff and members of the Class and Subclass were injured in that they would
3	not have pure	chased the tickets, or would have paid substantially less for them, but for Defendant's
4	obfuscation of	of the extra charges in an inconspicuous dropdown menu and its false and misleading
5	representatio	ns that the extra charges included both fees and taxes.
6	71.	On behalf of herself and the New York Subclass, Plaintiff seeks to recover her
7	actual damag	es or fifty dollars per violation, whichever is greater, three times actual damages, and
8	reasonable at	torneys' fees.
9		PRAYER FOR RELIEF
10	WHE	CREFORE , Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the members of the Nationwide
11	Class and Ne	w York Subclass, prays for judgment as follows:
12	(a)	For an order certifying the Classes under Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil
13		Procedure and naming Plaintiff as the representative of the Classes and Plaintiff's
14		attorneys as Class Counsel to represent the Classes;
15	(b)	For an order declaring that Defendant's conduct violates the statutes referenced
16		herein;
17	(c)	For an order finding in favor of Plaintiff and the Classes on all counts asserted
18		herein;
19	(d)	For compensatory and statutory damages in amounts to be determined by the Court
20		and/or jury;
21	(e)	For prejudgment interest on all amounts awarded;
22	(f)	For an order of restitution and all other forms of equitable monetary relief; and
23	(g)	For an order awarding Plaintiff and the Classes their reasonable attorneys' fees and
24		expenses and costs of suit.
25		JURY TRIAL DEMANDED
26	Plaint	iff demands a trial by jury on all claims so triable.
