THE PARTIES

7. Plaintiff Galo Cruz (“Plaintiff” or “Cruz”) is an adult, over eighteen years old, who currently resides in Queens County in the State of New York.
8. Upon information and belief and at all times relevant herein, Bleiburg Restaurant Inc. (“Defendant” or “BRI”), was a New York for-profit corporation with a place of business at 72 West 36th Street, New York, NY 10018.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

9. Upon information and belief, and at all relevant times herein, Defendant was engaged in the food and restaurant business. See <http://www.keens.com>

10. At all times relevant herein, Defendant owned and/or operated four or more restaurants and Defendant employed approximately 100 employees at any given time and about 300 employees during the class period.
11. Upon information and belief, and at all times relevant herein, Plaintiff was employed by Defendant from in or about November 16, 2014 to on or about October 5, 2016.
12. At all times relevant herein, Plaintiff was employed by Defendant as a manual worker to perform a variety of functions for Defendant including cooking and pastry making.
13. At all times relevant herein, Plaintiff was paid at a regular rate of $12.50- $13.50 an hour.
14. At all times relevant herein, Defendant paid Plaintiff at 1.5 times his regular rate for some overtime hours worked (hours over 40 in a week) but Plaintiff was not paid for all hours worked including his overtime hours in each week during his employment with Defendant.
15. At all times relevant herein, Defendant deducted one hour's pay for lunch from Plaintiff's weekly wages for each workday of the week. However, due to the demands of his job, Plaintiff generally took about 15-20 mins for his lunch break and sometimes he took no lunch break at all. As a result, Plaintiff is owed wages including overtime wages for approximately 4-6 hours each week during his employment with Defendant. For example, for the weekly pay period ending October 2, 2016, Plaintiff was paid for 40 regular hours and 3.5 overtime hours – Plaintiff should have been paid, at minimum, an additional 4 hours in overtime wages. This example is reflective of Defendant's payment policy and practice throughout as to Plaintiff and the putative class members.
16. At all times relevant herein, Plaintiff worked approximately 43-52 hours a week and likely more, 6 days a week.
17. Plaintiff's hours worked and wages paid will be refined after Defendant produces employment, time and wage records it was required to keep under the FLSA and NYLL.
18. Plaintiff incorporates herein, accurate records of her time, wages and employment that Defendant was required to keep pursuant to the FLSA and NYLL.

19. At all times relevant herein and for the time Plaintiff was employed by Defendant, Defendant failed and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff an overtime rate of one and one half times his regular rate of pay for each and all hours worked in excess of forty hours in a week for each week in which such overtime was worked.
20. Upon information and belief, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and the putative class members at a rate of 1.5 times their regular rate for each and all overtime hours worked (hours over 40 in a week).
21. At all times relevant herein, Defendant did not provide Plaintiff and the putative class members with the notice(s) required by NYLL 195(1).
22. At all times relevant herein, Defendant did not provide Plaintiff and the putative class members with the statement(s) required by NYLL 195(3) – the wage statements provided to Plaintiff did not state all hours worked by Plaintiff among other deficiencies.
23. Upon information and belief and at all times relevant herein, Defendant had annual revenues and/or expenditures in excess of $500, 000. Plaintiff references and incorporates herein, accurate copies of records of Defendant's business volume and revenues as well as business operations and commerce that Defendant was required to keep and maintain under the FLSA including under 29 CFR 516.
24. Upon information and belief and at all times relevant herein, Defendant conducted business with companies outside the State of New York.
25. Upon information and belief, and at all times relevant herein, Defendant and Plaintiff conducted business with insurance companies outside the State of New York.
26. At all times applicable herein and upon information and belief, Defendant utilized the goods, materials, and services through interstate commerce such as food supplies, and other essential equipment and supplies.

27. At all times applicable herein, Defendant conducted business with vendors and other businesses outside the State of New York.
28. Defendant as a regular part of its business, makes payment of taxes and other monies to agencies and entities outside the State of New York.
29. Defendant as a regular part of its business, engaged in credit card transactions involving banks and other institutions outside the State of New York.
30. At all times applicable herein and upon information and belief, Defendant utilized the instrumentalities of interstate commerce such as the United States mail, electronic mail, the internet and telephone systems.
31. Upon information and belief, and at all relevant times herein, Defendant failed to display federal and state minimum wage/overtime posters.
32. Upon information and belief, and at all relevant times herein, Defendant failed to notify Plaintiff of his federal and state minimum wage and overtime rights and failed to inform Plaintiff that he could seek enforcement of such rights through the government enforcement agencies.
33. The termination of Plaintiff's employment is believed to be wrongful and is currently under investigation and review. Such claims may be asserted later in this action or in a separate action.
34. The "present" or the "present time" as used in this complaint refers to the date this complaint was signed.

FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT - 29 U.S.C 201 et Seq. (Overtime)

35. Plaintiff alleges on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated who opt into this action pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), and incorporates by reference the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 34 above as if set forth fully and at length herein.
36. The named Plaintiff has consented to be part of this action by the filing of this action on his behalf and with his consent.
37. The FLSA cause of action is brought as a collective action on behalf of the named Plaintiff and all others who are/were similarly-situated and who file consents to opt-in to the action.

39. Although the precise number of putative class members is unknown, and facts on which the calculation of that number is based are presently within the sole control of Defendant, upon information and belief, there are over 300 members of the class during the class period.
40. The class definition will be refined as is necessary, including after discovery if necessary.
41. At all times relevant to this action, Plaintiff and all those similarly-situated, were employed by Defendant within the meaning of the FLSA – 29 U.S.C 201 et Seq.
42. Upon information and belief, and at all times relevant to this action, Plaintiff and all those similarly similarly-situated, were engaged in commerce and/or in the production of goods for commerce and/or Defendant constituted an enterprise(s) engaged in commerce within the meaning of the FLSA including 29 U.S.C. §§ 207(a).

43. Upon information and belief and at all times relevant herein, Defendant transacted commerce and business in excess of $500,000.00 annually or had revenues and/or expenditures in excess of $500,000.00 annually.
44. At all times relevant herein, Defendant failed and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff, and all those similarly-situated as class members, overtime compensation at rates not less than 1.5 times their regular rate of pay for each and all hours worked in excess of forty hours in a work week, in violation of 29 U.S.C. § 207.

Relief Demanded

45. Due to Defendant's FLSA violations, Plaintiff, and all those similarly-situated, are entitled to recover from Defendant, their unpaid overtime wage compensation, plus maximum liquidated damages, attorney's fees, and costs of the action, pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

NYLL 650 et Seq. (Unpaid Overtime)

46. Plaintiff alleges on behalf of himself and all others similarly-situated as class members, and incorporates by reference the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 44 above as if set forth fully and at length herein.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

47. Plaintiff sues on her own behalf and on behalf of a class of persons under Rule 23(a), (b)(2) and (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
48. The class of similarly-situated individuals as to the overtime cause of action under the NYLL is defined as current and former employees of Defendant, and who: 1) were employed by Defendant within the State of New York; 2) worked more than forty hours in a week, within at least the six-year period, preceding the filing of this complaint; and 3) were not paid at an overtime rate of at least 1.5 times their regular rate for each and all hours worked in excess of forty hours in a week as also explained above.
49. The class definition will be refined as is necessary, including after discovery if necessary.

50. Although the precise number of putative class members is unknown, and facts on which the calculation of that number is based are presently within the sole control of Defendant, upon information and belief, there are over 300 members of the class during the class period.
51. Upon information and belief, the putative class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable.
52. Upon information and belief, there are questions of law or fact common to the class – whether the putative class was paid at least 1.5 times the applicable regular rate for all hours in excess of forty in a week.
53. Upon information and belief, the claims of the representative party are typical of the claims of the class.
54. The representative party will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.
55. The Defendant has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the class as a whole.
56. There are questions of law and fact common to the class which predominate over any questions solely affecting individual members of the class, including:
 - (a) Whether, Defendant failed and/or refused to pay the Plaintiff and the putative class members at a rate of at least one and one half (1 ½) times their regular hourly rate for all hours worked in excess of forty each week within the meaning of New York Minimum Wage Act and the regulations thereunder – 12 NYCRR § 142-2.2.
57. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy - particularly in the context of wage and hour litigation where individual Plaintiffs lack the financial resources to vigorously prosecute a lawsuit in federal court against corporate Defendants and in light of the large number of putative class members.

58. At all times relevant to this action, Plaintiff and all those similarly-situated as class members, were employed by Defendant within the meaning of the New York Labor Law, §§ 2 and 651 and the regulations thereunder including 12 NYCRR § 142.

N.Y. Lab. Law §§ 650 et seq.; 12 NYCRR § 142-2.2.

Relief Demanded

60. Due to Defendant's NYLL overtime violations, Plaintiff, and all those similarly-situated, are entitled to recover from Defendant, their unpaid overtime compensation, maximum liquidated damages, prejudgment interest, attorney's fees, and costs of the action, pursuant to NYLL § 663(1).

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

NYLL § 190, 191, 193, 195 and 198

61. Plaintiff alleges on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated as class members, and incorporates by reference the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 60 above as if set forth fully and at length herein.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

62. Plaintiff sues on his own behalf and on behalf of a class of persons under Rule 23(a), (b)(2) and (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

63. The class of similarly-situated individuals as to the cause of action for NYLL 195(1) and NYLL 195(3) violations is defined as current and former employees of Defendant who: 1) were not provided with the notice(s) required by NYLL 195(1), or 2) were not provided with the statement(s) required by NYLL 195(3).

64. The class includes but is not limited to employees who did not receive wage statements, employees who received wage statements but whose wage statements did not reflect all hours worked or all wages earned, and employees who did not receive the required wage notices setting forth the regular and overtime rate of pay among other information.
65. The class definition will be refined as is necessary, including after discovery if necessary.
66. Although the precise number of putative class members is unknown, and facts on which the calculation of that number is based are presently within the sole control of Defendant, upon information and belief, there are over 300 members of the class during the class period.
67. Upon information and belief, the putative class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable.
68. Upon information and belief, there are questions of law or fact common to the class – (a) whether Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff with the notice(s) required by NYLL 195(1), or (b) whether Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and the putative class with the statement(s) required by NYLL 195(3).
69. Upon information and belief, the claims of the representative party are typical of the claims of the class.
70. The representative party will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.
71. The Defendant has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the class as a whole.
72. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy - particularly in the context of wage and hour litigation where individual Plaintiffs lack the financial resources to vigorously prosecute a lawsuit in federal court against corporate Defendant and in light of the large number of putative class members.

73. At all times relevant to this action, Plaintiff and all those similarly-situated as class members, were employed by Defendant within the meaning of the New York Labor law, §§ 190 et seq., including §§ 191, 193, 195 and 198.

74. At all times relevant herein, Defendant failed and willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the class members with the notice(s) required by NYLL 195(1) – Plaintiff and the class are therefore entitled to and seeks to recover in this action the maximum recovery for this violation, plus attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to NYLL 198 including NYLL 198(1-b), as well as an injunction directing Defendant to comply with NYLL 195(1).

75. At all times relevant herein, Defendant failed and willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the class members with the statement(s) required by NYLL 195(3) – Plaintiff and the class are therefore entitled to and seeks to recover in this action the maximum recovery for this violation, plus attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to NYLL 198 including NYLL 198(1-d), as well as an injunction directing Defendant to comply with NYLL 195(1).

Relief Demanded

76. Due to Defendant’s New York Labor Law Article 6 violations including violation of sections 191, 193, 195 and 198, Plaintiff, and all those similarly-situated, are entitled to recover from Defendant, maximum recovery for violations of NYLL 195(1) and NYLL 195(3), reasonable attorneys’ fees, and costs of the action, pursuant to N.Y. Labor Law § 190 et seq. including § 198.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court grant the following relief:
