Case No.:

COMPLAINT -- CLASS ACTION

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff Stephen Galati (“Galati” or “Plaintiff”), by his attorneys, on behalf of himself and the Class set forth below, alleges the following upon information and belief, except for those certain allegations that pertain to Plaintiff, which are based on Plaintiff’s personal knowledge.

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This action relates to certain defective Samsung home washing machines that have an inherently dangerous defect. These washing machines “explode,” or suffer catastrophic failure during a given machine’s normal usage because of a design defect and/or manufacturing flaw.

2. On or about October 10, 2015, Galati purchased one of the subject Samsung washing machines (model number WA50F9A7DSW/A2) from a Lowe’s Home Centers, LLC store located in Wilkesboro, North Carolina.

3. On November 4, 2016, Samsung began a recall (Recall # 17-028) of 34 distinct models (the “Recalled Washing Machine(s)”), all being models of Samsung top-load washing machines, including the model purchased by Plaintiff as described above. A listing of the model numbers for the Recalled Washing Machines is attached hereto as Exhibit 1. The stated reason for the recall is that “[t]he [Samsung] washing machine top can unexpectedly detach from the washing machine chassis during use, posing a risk of injury from impact.” The recall bulletin further notes that “Samsung has received 733 reports of washing machines experiencing excessive vibration or the top detaching from the washing machine chassis. There are nine related reports of injuries, including a broken jaw, injured shoulder, and other impact or fall-related injuries.” See U.S. Consumer Product Safety Comm’n, Samsung Recalls Top-Load Washing Machines Due to Risk of Impact Injuries, <https://www.cpsc.gov/recalls/2017/samsung-recalls-top-load-washing-machines> (last accessed March 3, 2017) (hereafter “Safety Recall”).

4. The remedies provided in Samsung’s recall bulletin allow consumers the option of any one of the following: (1) an in-home repair or retrofit that includes reinforcement of the washer’s top and a free one-year extension of the manufacturer’s warranty; (2) a rebate to be applied towards the purchase of a new Samsung or other brand of washing machine, along with free installation of the new unit and removal of the old unit; or (3) a full refund for consumers who purchased their washing machine within the past thirty days of the recall announcement. See id.

5. None of the options were available to the Plaintiff because: (1) the retrofit that Samsung proposes does not actually fix the defect in the machine so that Plaintiff can use the machine as they intended at purchase; (2) the rebate would have paid for a fraction of the cost of replacement; and (3) Plaintiff purchased his machine more than thirty days prior to the recall.

6. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and other purchasers of the Recalled Washing Machines in the United States, its possessions, or territories from March 2011 to November 2016. Plaintiff seeks relief in the form of: (1) an injunction against Defendants from any further sales of the Recalled Washing Machines and to take such other remedial action as may otherwise be requested herein; and (2) money damages to adequately and reasonably compensate owners of the Recalled Washing Machines who have, through no fault of their own, purchased defective and dangerous Samsung washing machines.

PARTIES

7. Plaintiff Galati is a citizen and resident of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

8. Defendant Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd. is a South Korean corporation headquartered in Seoul, South Korea. On information and belief, Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd. designs, manufactures, and distributes the Recalled Washing Machines for sale in this District. At all times relevant hereto, Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd. was in the business of distributing, marketing, promoting, and selling the recalled Washing Machines described herein throughout the United States and in this District. Thus, Samsung Electronics, Co., Ltd. purposely directed its conduct towards this District and at all times relevant engaged in a continuous course of business in this District by selling thousands of its washing machines and other consumer goods in this District every year.

9. Defendant Samsung Electronics America, Inc. is a New York corporation with headquarters in Ridgefield Park, New Jersey and is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Samsung Electronics, Co., Ltd. Samsung Electronics America, Inc. is the warrantor of the products designed, manufactured, and distributed by Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd., and acts as Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd.'s agent in the processing of warranty claims related to defects in the manufacturing or materials used by Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd. during the manufacturing process. At all times relevant hereto, Samsung Electronics America, Inc. was in the business of distributing, marketing, promoting, and selling the Recalled Washing Machines described herein throughout the United States and in this District. Samsung Electronics America, Inc. engages in a continuous course of business in this District and, based upon information and belief, sells thousands of washing machines and other consumer goods in this District on an annual basis. Defendants Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd. and Samsung Electronics America, Inc. are referred to collectively herein as “Samsung.”

10. Home Depot, Inc. (“Home Depot”) is a Delaware corporation with its headquarters in Atlanta, Georgia. At all times relevant hereto, Home Depot was in the business of distributing, marketing, promoting, and selling the Recalled Washing Machines described herein throughout the United States and in this District. Home Depot engages in a continuous course of business in this District and, based upon information and belief, sells thousands of washing machines and other consumer goods in this District on an annual basis.

11. Lowe’s Home Centers, LLC (“Lowe’s”), is a North Carolina limited liability corporation with its headquarters in Wilkesboro, North Carolina. At all times relevant hereto, Lowe’s was in the business of distributing, marketing, promoting, and selling the Recalled Washing Machines described herein throughout the United States and in this District. Lowe’s engages in a continuous course of business in this District and, based upon information and belief, sells thousands of washing machines and other consumer goods in this District on an annual basis.

12. Best Buy Co., Inc. (“Best Buy”), is a Minnesota corporation with its headquarters in Richfield, Minnesota. At all times relevant hereto, Best Buy was in the business of distributing, marketing, promoting, and selling the Recalled Washing Machines described herein throughout the United States and in this District. Best Buy engages in a continuous course of business in this District and, based upon information and belief, sells thousands of washing machines and other consumer goods in this District on an annual basis.

13. Sears Holding Corp. (“Sears”) is a Delaware corporation with its headquarters in Hoffman Estates, Illinois. At all times relevant hereto, Sears was in the business of distributing, marketing, promoting, and selling the Recalled Washing Machines described herein throughout the United States and in this District. Sears engages in a continuous course of business in this District and, based upon information and belief, sells thousands of washing machines and other consumer goods in this District on an annual basis.

14. Samsung, Home Depot, Lowe’s, Best Buy and Sears are referred to collectively herein as “Defendants.”

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

15. This Court has original jurisdiction over this class action pursuant to the Class Action Fairness Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2). The claims of the Class members in this class action are in excess of $5,000,000 in the aggregate, exclusive of interest and costs, some members of the proposed class and the Defendants are citizens of different states, and the total number of members of the proposed Class is believed to be greater than 100.

16. The Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants because Defendants have sufficient minimum contacts with Pennsylvania such that the exercise of jurisdiction by this Court is consistent with notions of fair play and substantial justice. Defendants routinely conduct business in Pennsylvania and otherwise avail themselves of the protections and benefits of Pennsylvania law through the distribution, promotion, marketing, and sale of Recalled Washing Machines, and this action arises out of or relates to these contacts.

17. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because events giving rise to the claims occurred in this District and the Defendants are subject to jurisdiction here and regularly conduct business in this District.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

18. On November 4, 2016, Samsung announced a “recall involve[ing] 34 models of Samsung top-load washing machines. The Recalled Washing Machines have mid-controls or rear-controls. [The] model numbers and serial information can be found on two labels affixed to the back of the machine.” Safety Recall, supra ¶ 3. The Recalled Washing Machines are detailed by model number on Exhibit 1 attached hereto. The stated reason for the recall is that “[t]he [Samsung] washing machine top can unexpectedly detach from the washing machine chassis during use, posing a risk of injury from impact.” Id. The recall bulletin further notes that “Samsung has received 733 reports of washing machines experiencing excessive vibration or the top detaching from the washing machine chassis. There are nine related reports of injuries, including a broken jaw, injured shoulder, and other impact or fall-related injuries.” Id.

19. Samsung’s recall allows owners of Recalled Washing Machines the option of any one of the following: (1) an in-home repair that includes reinforcement of the washer’s top and a free one-year extension of the manufacturer’s warranty; (2) a rebate to be applied towards the purchase of a new Samsung or other brand washing machine, along with free installation of the new unit and removal of old unit; or (3) a full refund for consumers who purchased their washing machine within the past 30 days of the recall announcement.

20. On October 10, 2015, Galati purchased one of the Recalled Washing Machines (model number WA56H9000AP/A2) from a local Lowe’s store Located in Wilkesboro, North Carolina. Galati also purchased a three (3) year extended warranty for the Recalled Washing Machine from Lowe's. Galati experienced significant problems with his Recalled Washing Machine that were caused by its inherent defects.

21. Prior to the Recall, Galati began experiencing excessive vibration issues with his Recalled Washing Machine. When he called Samsung to report the issue, Samsung told him that this was normal.

22. In January of 2016, approximately fourteen (14) months after purchasing his Recalled Washing Machine, Galati discovered that the drum of the machine had separated from its housing when he found blue plastic pieces that had separated from the machine in the drum of his machine.

23. Three weeks later, on February 5, 2016, a repair technician from Lowe's came to Galati's house to repair the damaged housing. Even after this repair was made, the Recalled Washing Machine still experienced excessive vibration, even on lower spin speeds.

24. Since February 2016, Galati is unable to use his Recalled Washing Machine on any setting other than "Delicate" due to the loud and extreme vibrations caused by the Machine's spin cycle, even at its lowest speed.

25. Galati did not receive notice that he owned one of the Recalled Washing Machines following the November 4, 2016 announcement.

26. In December 2016, Galati received a "Home Label Kit" from Samsung, which consisted of stickers to be placed on the Recalled Washing Machine, that state that "consumers should only use the delicate or waterproof cycles when washing bedding, water-resistant and bulky items. The lower spin speed in the delicate or waterproof cycles lessens the risk of the washing machine top unexpectedly detaching from the washing machine chassis." See Safety Recall, supra

¶ 3.

27. On or about November 10, 2016, Galati completed Samsung's online recall claim form and requested that Samsung exchange his machine instead of the offered repair.

28. Samsung refused, as the replacement option was not available for Galati under the terms of the recall because he had purchased his washing machine outside of thirty (30) days of the recall notice.

29. In addition, the rebate option did not provide Galati adequate relief because it provided a fraction of the cost to purchase a new machine to replace his Recalled Washing Machine. Samsung offered Galati a rebate of $400 to purchase a different Samsung washing Machine, or $325 to purchase a non-Samsung washing machine. Galati did not accept either offer.

30. The repair option was also not viable for Galati as the repair option does not, in fact, repair the excessive vibration issues with the Recalled Washing Machines. In an effort to reduce costs, Samsung has contracted with local entities to reinforce or replace the lid of the Recalled Washing Machines with a retrofit. Additionally, instead of using appliance repair companies to institute the retrofit, Samsung has hired local subcontractors who are more in the line of handymen. For example, in many areas, Samsung is using Dish Network subcontractors, whose job primarily consists of installing television satellite dishes on residences, to install the new washing machine lids.

31. In essence, in an effort to cut costs, Samsung's repair option does not use individuals qualified to repair or evaluate the safety of the Recalled Washing Machines. The repairmen simply come to your house and snap on a new lid. Several consumers have claimed the process takes less than fifteen (15) minutes.

32. Samsung is not currently offering any option to correct the excessive vibration issues that caused the drum of Galati's Recalled Washing Machine to separate from its housing.

Therefore, even after Lowes repaired the machine, Galati is still unable to run his Recalled Washing Machine on anything but the “Delicate” setting, due to the excessive vibrations caused by using any other setting. In effect, Galati has been left without a usable washing machine.

33. In addition, it is difficult, if not impossible, to get Samsung to provide the repair option. When consumers request that Samsung repair their machine, it often takes weeks or months for a repair person to come and make the retrofit, and at times Samsung has refused to provide the repair at all, claiming that there is nobody in a consumer’s area that can make the repair. As a result, regardless of the option consumers choose, they are left with a Recalled Washing Machine that is unfit for use.

34. The repair or retrofit offered by the recall does not fix the Recalled Washing Machines. The retrofit merely reinforces or replaces the lid of the Recalled Washing Machine, but consumers are then advised that they cannot use the Recalled Washing Machine for many of its intended purposes, such as using the high cycles needed to wash bedding, towels and heavy garments. In essence, the retrofit may barely do enough to keep the Recalled Washing Machines from exploding (although that remains to be seen) but the repairs do not make the Recalled Washing Machines fit for the purposes they were marketed and sold to accomplish.

35. Samsung is not currently offering any option to correct the excessive vibration issues that, in Galati’s case, caused the drum of the Recalled Washing Machine to separate from its housing. Therefore, even after Lowe’s repaired the machine, Galati is still unable to run his Recalled Washing Machine on anything but the “Delicate” setting, due to the excessive vibrations caused by using any other setting. In effect, Galati has been left without a usable washing machine.

36. As a result, under the terms of Samsung’s agreement with the Consumer Products Safety Commission, Samsung is required to fully refund or replace the washing machine. See Amy

Davis, Feds say Samsung not following Consumer Product Safety Commission agreement, KPRC (January 25, 2017), <http://www.click2houston.com/consumer/feds-say-samsung-not-following-consumer-product-safety-commission-agreement>. For this reason, and upon information and belief, Samsung is deliberately making it as difficult as possible for individuals to have their Recalled Washing Machines repaired because it exposes Samsung to having to offer a comparable replacement once consumers discover that the repair is ineffective.

37. As in the case of Galati, the rebates that Samsung offers to consumers are often times a fraction of the cost that consumers actually paid for their washing machines, and after multiple frustrating interactions with Samsung, it becomes apparent that it is difficult, if not impossible, to get Samsung to provide consumers with relief that would allow them to use their washing machines as they were intended to be used.

38. After learning of Samsung's recall of the Recalled Washing Machines, Plaintiff was not able to use his Samsung washing machine as intended because of the excessive vibration caused by using any setting other than "Delicate" and the danger posed from potentially having their washing machines "explode" during normal use. In addition to effectively being without a working washing machine since February 2016, Plaintiff has been forced to spend frustrating time with Samsung and Lowe's attempting to resolve their problems with the Recalled Washing Machines.

THE RECALLED WASHING MACHINES

39. The Recalled Washing Machines at issue in this action all have high-speed "direct-drive" mechanisms that spin the washer tub at speeds of approximately 1100 revolutions per minute. The framing and dampening system of the Recalled Washing Machines is inadequate to withstand the force generated by each such machine's direct drive system.

40. The models of Samsung's Recalled Washing Machines include the following:

WA40J3000AW/A2	WA45H7000AP/A2	WA45H7000AW/A2
WA45H7200AW/A2	WA45K7600AW/A2	WA45K7100AW/A2
WA48H7400AW/A2	WA48J7700AW/A2	WA48J7770AP/A2
WA48J7770AW/A2	WA50K8600AV/A2	WA50K8600AW/A2
WA52J8700AP/A2	WA52J8700AW/A2	WA400PJHDWR/AA
WA422PRHDWR/AA	WA456DRHDSU/AA	WA456DRHDWR/AA
WA476DSHASU/A1	WA476DSHAWR/A1	WA484DSHASU/A1
WA484DSHAWR/A1	WA48H7400AP/A2	WA50F9A6DSW/A2
WA50F9A7DSP/A2	WA50F9A7DSW/A2	WA50F9A8DSP/A2
WA50F9A8DSW/A2	WA52J8060AW/A2	WA5451ANW/XAA
WA5471ABP/XAA	WA5471ABW/XAA	WA56H9000AP/A2
WA56H9000AW/A2

41. The Recalled Washing Machines at issue range in price from approximately $450.00 to $1,500.00 and come with an express one-year manufacturer's warranty.

42. As explained above, this case involves Recalled Washing Machines that, in many instances, "explode." When the Recalled Washing Machines explode, they do so with such force that the machines are irreparably damaged. Indeed, the force of the explosion is capable of seriously injuring people and damaging property, which Samsung has been aware of, rendering the Recalled Washing Machines unsafe for ordinary use.

43. Because of the inherent safety risk, the recall now includes a "Home Label Kit" or stickers that state that "consumers should only use the delicate or waterproof cycles when washing bedding, water-resistant and bulky items. The lower spin speed in the delicate or waterproof cycles lessens the risk of the washing machine top unexpectedly detaching from the washing machine chassis." Safety Recall, supra ¶ 3. However, as Galati experienced, even on the lower spin speeds, the Recalled Washing Machines are still dangerous and may experience excessive vibration.

44. Even if a consumer is able to have Samsung, or, in Galati's case, Lowe's, "repair" their defective washing machine, they are still unable to use it for its intended purpose. After the repair is completed, Samsung advises consumers not to use the washing machines on heavy settings that would typically be used to wash bedding or heavier garments. In essence, Samsung has left consumers with the choice of using a defective product for the life of the product (regardless of whether the recall's reinforcement measures are applied or not), accepting a rebate that is often well below the amount it costs to actually replace a defective machine, or simply doing without.

45. The defects in the Recalled Washing Machines are latent defects respecting the design of the machines and/or the manufacturing process related to the Recalled Washing Machines and such defects would not reasonably be discoverable by consumers when purchasing any of the Recalled Washing Machines. These latent defects relate principally to the Recalled Washing Machines having structural and design defects in their framing and dampening systems which can cause the tubs to loosen and become projectiles over time. Such defects in the Recalled Washing Machines manifest only after the point of sale and such manifestation often occurs outside of Samsung's express warranty period of one year.

46. In selling the Recalled Washing Machines, Samsung provided a uniform, express one-year factory warranty against manufacturing defects in materials and workmanship. This express warranty further protects against defects in the tub for three years, as well as defects in the direct drive system for 10 years. The warranty for the Recalled Washing Machines is offered on a take-it-or-leave-it basis, and consumers are not afforded an opportunity to negotiate for more favorable terms in the warranty because of the parties' relative bargaining power. In addition to the express warranty described above, Samsung marketed, advertised, and warranted that the Recalled Washing Machines were of merchantable quality and fit for their intended purpose. Samsung further marketed, advertised, and warranted that the Recalled Washing Machines were free from defects and the Recalled Washing Machines did not pose an unreasonable risk to persons or property.

47. Samsung knew that the Recalled Washing Machines were prone to these defects and, therefore, that the Recalled Washing Machines were inherently defective, unmerchantable and unfit for their intended use. Beginning as early as 2011, Samsung received high numbers of consumer complaints related to the Recalled Washing Machines for problems with their spin cycles, high vibrations, breaking springs, and even explosions related to the Recalled Washing Machines' spin cycles. Moreover, Samsung has known that the exploding Washing Machines cause actual physical injury to consumers since no later than approximately October 24, 2013, when a woman in California was physically injured by a Samsung Washing Machine explosion. This incident led Samsung to inspect the woman's washing machine on November 22, 2013.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

48. Plaintiff brings this suit as a class action on behalf of himself and others similarly situated pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a), 23(b)(2), and 23(b)(3) (the "Class").

The proposed Class consists of:

All residents of the United States and its territories or possessions who purchased a new Recalled Washing Machine or otherwise acquired a Recalled Washing Machine from March 2011 to November 2016, primarily for household use and not for resale.

49. Galati also bring this suit as a class action on behalf of the following subclass ("Pennsylvania Subclass"):

All residents of the State of Pennsylvania who purchased a new Recalled Washing Machine or otherwise acquired a Recalled Washing Machine from March 2011 to November 2016, primarily for household use and not for resale.

50. Unless otherwise indicated, the Class and the Pennsylvania Subclass are referred to herein jointly as the “Class.”

51. The members of the Class are so numerous that joinder is impracticable. Samsung is one of the largest manufacturers of residential washing machines in the world and it sells many thousands of residential washing machines annually in the United States and in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania through retailers such as Lowe’s, The Home Depot, Best Buy and Sears.

52. Plaintiff’s claims are typical of the claims of the entire Class because Plaintiff purchased a new Recalled Washing Machine in October 2015.

53. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the other Class members for purposes of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a)(4). Plaintiff has no interests antagonistic to those of other Class members. Plaintiff is committed to the vigorous prosecution of this action and has retained counsel experienced in litigation of this nature to represent them.

54. Class certification is appropriate under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a)(2) and 23(b)(3) because common questions of law and fact exist as to all members of the Class and predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the Class, including, but not limited to:

a. whether the Recalled Washing Machines pose unreasonable safety risks to consumers;

b. whether Defendants knew, or should have known, that the products it sold into the stream of commerce pose unreasonable safety risks to consumers;

c. whether Defendants concealed the safety risks that the Recalled Washing Machines pose to consumers;

d. whether the safety risks that the Recalled Washing Machines pose to consumers constitute material facts that reasonable purchasers would have considered in deciding whether to purchase a washing machine;

- e. whether the Recalled Washing Machines possess material defects;
- f. whether Defendants knew or should have known of the inherent defects in the Recalled Washing Machines when it placed them into the stream of commerce;
- g. whether Defendants concealed the defects from consumers;
- h. whether the existence of the defects are material facts reasonable purchasers would have considered in deciding whether to purchase a washing machine;
- i. whether the Recalled Washing Machines are merchantable;
- j. whether the Recalled Washing Machines are fit for their intended use;
- k. whether Defendants were unjustly enriched by the sale of defective Recalled Washing Machines to the Class;
- l. whether any false warranties, misrepresentations, and material omissions by Samsung concerning its defective Recalled Washing Machines caused Class members' injuries; and
- m. whether Defendants should be enjoined from further sales of the Recalled Washing Machines.

55. Class certification under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(b)(3) is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. Since the damages suffered by individual Class members may be relatively small, the expense and burden of individual litigation make it virtually impossible for the Class members to seek redress for the wrongful conduct alleged. Plaintiff know of no difficulty that will be encountered in the management of this litigation which would preclude its maintenance as a class action.

56. Class members have suffered and will suffer irreparable harm and damages as a result of Defendants' wrongful conduct.

COUNT I
BREACH OF IMPLIED WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY
AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS

57. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

58. The Recalled Washing Machines owned by Plaintiff and Class members were defectively designed and manufactured and pose serious and immediate safety risks to consumers and the public.

59. These defects were present in such machines at the point of sale of the Recalled Washing Machines.

60. Such defects place consumers and the public at serious risk for their own safety when the Recalled Washing Machines are used in consumers' homes.

61. At all times relevant hereto, Samsung, Lowe's, The Home Depot, Best Buy, and Sears were under a duty imposed by law requiring that a manufacturer's and merchant's product be reasonably fit for the ordinary purposes for which the product is used, and that the product be acceptable in trade for the product description. This implied warranty of merchantability is part of the basis of the bargain between Samsung, Lowe's, The Home Depot, Best Buy and Sears, on the one hand, and Plaintiff and Class members, on the other.

62. Notwithstanding the aforementioned duty, at the time of delivery, Defendants breached the implied warranty of merchantability in that the Recalled Washing Machines were defective and posed a serious safety risk at the time of sale, would not pass without objection, are not fit for the ordinary purposes for which such goods are used (safely washing clothes in a residential setting), and failed to conform to the standard performance of like products used in the trade.

63. Defendants knew or should have known that the Recalled Washing Machines pose a safety risk and are defective and knew or should have known that selling the Recalled Washing Machines to Plaintiff and Class members constituted a breach of the implied warranty of merchantability. In fact, upon information and belief, Lowe's, The Home Depot, Best Buy and Sears are still selling the Recalled Washing Machines without warning of the recall at the time of filing of this Complaint. Despite the recall notice and multiple lawsuits having been filed, Defendants continue to place the defective Recalled Washing Machines into the stream of commerce.

64. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' breaches of the implied warranty of merchantability, Plaintiff and Class members bought the Recalled Washing Machines without knowledge of their defects or their serious safety risks.

65. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' breach of the implied warranty of merchantability, Plaintiff and Class members purchased unsafe products which could not be used for their intended purpose including washing bedding, water-resistant items, and bulky items in a residential setting.

66. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' breach of the implied warranty of merchantability, Plaintiff and Class members have suffered damages and did not receive the benefit of their bargain.

67. Defendants were unjustly enriched by keeping the profits for the unsafe products while never having to incur the cost of repair, replacement, retrofit, or a recall.

68. The defectively designed Recalled Washing Machines purchased by Plaintiff and all other Class members are unfit for their intended and ordinary purposes because they are prone to break and even explode when operated as instructed and intended by Defendants.

69. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' breach of the implied warranty of merchantability, Plaintiff and all the Class members have suffered loss.

COUNT II
STRICT LIABILITY AGAINST SAMSUNG

1. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

2. Samsung is engaged in the business of designing, manufacturing, distributing, advertising, marketing, promoting, and/or selling home appliances, and did design, manufacture, distribute, advertise, market, promote and/or sell the Recalled Washing Machines at issue herein.

3. Samsung's Washing Machines were expected to and did reach Galati and Class members without substantial change in the condition in which they were manufactured, sold and distributed.

4. The Recalled Washing Machines were in a defective and unreasonably dangerous condition when they left Samsung's possession or control in that, under normal conditions, usage and applications, they could not withstand the use for which they were intended.

5. Galati and Class members used the subject Washing Machines in a manner reasonably intended by Samsung.

6. The Recalled Washing Machines were defective because they were not safe for ordinary and intended use; Samsung failed to provide Galati and Class members either directly or indirectly, with adequate and sufficient warning regarding the known or foreseeable risks and dangers inherent in the Recalled Washing Machines; the Recalled Washing Machines contained design, material, and manufacturing defects and were not reasonably safe due to such defects; the design, methods of manufacture, and testing of the Recalled Washing Machines did not conform to generally recognized and prevailing standards or the state of the art in existence at the time the design was made and the Recalled Washing Machines were manufactured; and at the time the Recalled Washing Machines left Samsung's control, the foreseeable risks associated with the Recalled Washing Machines' design exceeded the benefits associated with that design.

7. Galati and Class members have suffered property damage and other incidental and consequential damages as a direct and proximate result of the defective condition.

8. Samsung acted with malice, oppression and/or fraud, and in conscious and flagrant disregard of the safety of their consumers, by manufacturing and selling the Recalled Washing Machines known to them to be defective and unreasonably dangerous. As alleged, Samsung knew or should have known that the defects would cause their washing machines to fail, flood, damage the Recalled Washing Machine and other property, and threaten the personal safety of consumers. Samsung knew or was repeatedly informed of the serious defects in the Recalled Washing Machines, yet failed to take any remedial action and instead continued to sell this defective product. Given Samsung's conscious disregard for the safety of the public, Galati and Class members seek exemplary or punitive damages.

COUNT III
NEGLIGENCE AGAINST SAMSUNG

70. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

71. Samsung owed a duty to Plaintiff and Class members to design, manufacture, produce, test, inspect, market, distribute, and sell the Recalled Washing Machines with reasonable care and in a workmanlike fashion, and had a duty to protect Plaintiff and Class members from foreseeable and unreasonable risks of harm. Samsung breached that duty by, among other things, defectively designing, manufacturing, testing, inspecting and distributing the Recalled Washing Machines.

72. Samsung unreasonably failed to provide appropriate and adequate warnings and instructions about its defective Washing Machines, and this failure was a proximate cause of the harm for which damages are sought. In addition, at the time the Recalled Washing Machines left its control, Samsung knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, its defective Washing Machines posed a substantial risk of harm to the life and property of its customers. And at the time the Recalled Washing Machines left its control, Samsung knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, the Recalled Washing Machines it designed, manufactured, produced, tested, inspected, marketed, distributed, and sold, created an unreasonable safety risk and would fail to perform as intended.

73. Samsung acted unreasonably in designing the Recalled Washing Machines, and this conduct was a proximate cause of the harm for which damages are sought. Further, at the time the Recalled Washing Machines left the control of Samsung, it unreasonably failed to adopt a safer, practical, feasible, and otherwise reasonable alternative design that could then have been reasonably adopted and that would have prevented or substantially reduced the risk of harm without substantially impairing the usefulness, practicality, or desirability of the Washing Machines. Furthermore, at the time the Recalled Washing Machines left the control of Samsung, their design was so defective that a reasonable person, aware of the relevant facts, would not use or purchase a Washing Machine of this design.

74. Samsung knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, that the Recalled Washing Machines created unreasonable safety risks. Samsung further knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, that the Recalled Washing Machines could cause property damage, personal injury, and/or death.

75. Based on this knowledge, Samsung had a duty to disclose to Plaintiff and Class members, the serious safety risks posed by the Recalled Washing Machines and the defective nature of the Recalled Washing Machines.

76. Samsung had a further duty not to put the defective Recalled Washing Machines on the market and has a continuing duty to replace its unsafe Recalled Washing Machines, remove them from the market and seek a recall of them from consumers. Samsung has failed to do this, and in fact, upon information and belief, the Recalled Washing Machines can still be purchased from retailers today.

77. Samsung failed to exercise reasonable care with respect to the design, manufacture, production, testing, inspection, marketing, distribution and sale of the Recalled Washing Machines by, among other things, failing to design and manufacture the Recalled Washing Machines in a manner to ensure that, under normal intended usage, they would not pose unreasonable risk to life and property.

78. Samsung failed to exercise reasonable care in failing to warn, or to warn adequately and sufficiently, either directly or indirectly, Plaintiff and Class members of the defects in the Recalled Washing Machines.

79. Samsung failed to exercise reasonable care when it knew of the safety risks the Recalled Washing Machines posed and actively concealed those risks from Plaintiff and Class members.

80. Samsung failed to exercise reasonable care when it knew of the safety risks the Recalled Washing Machines posed and failed to replace, repair or recall the Recalled Washing Machines that it knew were unsafe and defective.

81. As a direct and proximate result of Samsung's negligence, Plaintiff and Class members bought the Recalled Washing Machines without knowledge of their defective nature or of their serious safety risks.

82. As a direct and proximate result of Samsung's negligence, Plaintiff and Class members purchased unsafe products which could not be used for their intended use.

83. As a direct and proximate result of Samsung's negligence, Plaintiff and Class members have suffered damages.

84. Plaintiff and Class members seek to recover the damage caused by Samsung. Given Samsung's conscious disregard for the safety of Plaintiff and Class members, they also seek an award of exemplary damages.

COUNT IV
BREACH OF EXPRESS WARRANTY
AGAINST SAMSUNG

85. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

86. Samsung is, and at all times relevant was, a merchant with respect to washing machines.

87. As set forth above, Samsung had knowledge of the defects alleged herein and that they pose serious safety risks to consumers like Plaintiff and Class members.

88. Despite that knowledge, at all times relevant, Samsung expressly warranted in writing that its Washing Machines were “warranted by SAMSUNG against manufacturing defects in materials and workmanship.” Samsung Washer Limited Warranty, attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

89. In its warranty to customers, Samsung also warrants in writing that it provides the following warranties: one year parts and labor; two years control board parts; three years stainless steel tub part; and ten years motor components.

90. The Recalled Washing Machines have inadequate framing and dampening systems to withstand the extreme forces generated by the direct drive system that powers the machines’ drums, often allowing the Recalled Washing Machines to fail when the tub becomes disassembled from the frame during a machine’s “explosion.” Moreover, the unbalanced load warning is defective in that it fails to stop the Recalled Washing Machines’ spin cycle before the machines explode.

91. Alternatively, the limitations in Samsung’s warranty are unconscionable as described herein.

92. By selling Recalled Washing Machines containing these defects to consumers like Plaintiff and Class members after it gained knowledge of the defects, Samsung breached its express warranty to provide washing machines that were free from defects.

93. Samsung also breached its express warranty to repair and correct material defects or component malfunctions in its Recalled Washing Machines when it failed to do so despite knowledge of the known defects and despite knowledge of alternative designs, alternative materials, and options for retrofits.

94. The limited warranty of repair for the Recalled Washing Machines fails in its essential purpose because the contractual remedy is insufficient to make Plaintiff and Class members whole and because Samsung has refused to provide the promised remedies within a reasonable time.

95. Also, as alleged in more detail herein, at the time Samsung warranted and sold the Recalled Washing Machines, it knew that the Recalled Washing Machines did not conform to the warranties and were inherently defective, and Samsung wrongfully and fraudulently misrepresented and concealed material facts regarding its Washing Machines.

96. Accordingly, Plaintiff and Class members are not limited to the limited warranty of “repair”, and Plaintiff and Class members seek all remedies allowed by law.

97. As more fully detailed above, Samsung knew that Plaintiff’ washing machine was susceptible to malfunction but failed to provide defect-free washing machines to Plaintiff or Class members, or to timely provide an adequate retrofit to remedy the Recalled Washing Machines.

98. Samsung was provided with notice, and has been on notice, of the defects and of its breach of express written warranties through its own internal and external testing, as well as hundreds or thousands of consumer warranty claims reporting malfunctions in the Recalled Washing Machines, and customer complaints. Yet, Samsung failed to repair, replace, or retrofit the Recalled Washing Machines to ensure they were free of materials defects or component malfunctions as Samsung promised.

99. As a direct and proximate result of Samsung’s breach of its express warranty, Plaintiff and Class members have suffered damages.

100. Samsung has been unjustly enriched by keeping the profits from the sale of its unsafe washing machines while never having to incur the cost of repair.

COUNT V
VIOLATIONS OF MAGNUSON-MOSS ACT
(15 U.S.C. §§ 2301-2312)–WRITTEN WARRANTY
AGAINST SAMSUNG

101. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations contained in all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though set forth fully herein.

102. The Recalled Washing Machines are “consumer products,” as that term is defined by 15 U.S.C. § 2301(1).

103. Plaintiff and Class members are “consumers,” as that term is defined by 15 U.S.C. § 2301(3).

104. Samsung is a “warrantor” and “supplier,” as those terms are defined by 15 U.S.C. § 2301(4) and (5).

105. Samsung provided Plaintiff and Class members with “written warranties,” as that term is defined by 15 U.S.C. § 2301(6).

106. In its capacity as warrantor, and by the conduct described herein, any attempts by Samsung to limit the express warranties in a manner that would exclude coverage of the Recalled Washing Machines is unconscionable and any such effort to disclaim, or otherwise limit, liability for the Recalled Washing Machines is null and void.

107. All jurisdictional prerequisites have been satisfied.

108. By Samsung’s conduct as described herein, including Samsung’s knowledge of the defective Washing Machines and their action, and inaction, in the face of that knowledge, Samsung has failed to comply with its obligations under its written and implied promises, warranties, and representations.

109. As a result of Samsung's breach of express warranties, Plaintiff and Class members are entitled to revoke their acceptance of the Recalled Washing Machines, obtain damages and equitable relief, and obtain attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 2310.

COUNT VI
VIOLATIONS OF MAGNUSON-MOSS ACT
(15 U.S.C. §§ 2301-2312)—IMPLIED WARRANTY AGAINST
ALL DEFENDANTS

110. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations contained in all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though set forth fully herein.

111. Washing Machines are "consumer products," as that term is defined by 15 U.S.C. § 2301(1).

112. Plaintiff and Class members are "consumers," as that term is defined by 15 U.S.C. § 2301(3).

113. Samsung is a "warrantor" and "supplier," as those terms are defined by 15 U.S.C. § 2301(4) and (5).

114. Lowe's, The Home Depot, Best Buy, and Sears are "warrantors" as that term is defined by 15 U.S.C. § 2301(5).

115. Defendants provided Plaintiff and Class members with "implied warranties," as that term is defined by 15 U.S.C. § 2301(7).

116. In their capacity as warrantors and by the conduct described herein, any attempt by Defendants to limit the implied warranties in a manner that would exclude coverage of the Recalled Washing Machines is unconscionable and any such effort to disclaim, or otherwise limit, liability for the Recalled Washing Machines is void.

117. All jurisdictional prerequisites have been satisfied.

118. By Defendants' conduct as described herein, including Defendants' knowledge of the defects contained within the Recalled Washing Machines and their action, and inaction, in the face of that knowledge, Defendants have failed to comply with its obligations under their written and implied promises, warranties, and representations.

119. As a result of Defendants' breach of implied warranties, Plaintiff and Class members are entitled to revoke their acceptance of the Recalled Washing Machines, obtain damages and equitable relief, and obtain attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 2310.

COUNT VII
UNJUST ENRICHMENT AGAINST
ALL DEFENDANTS

120. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

121. Defendants received, and continue to receive, proceeds from their sale of the defective Recalled Washing Machines, which were purchased by Plaintiff and Class members for an amount far greater than the reasonable value of such machines because of such machines' defects.

122. In exchange for the purchase price paid by Plaintiff and Class members, Defendants provided the defective Recalled Washing Machines that are likely to fail within their useful lives and pose a material risk of "exploding." There is no reasonable or acceptable rate for washing machines to explode. Such defects render the Recalled Washing Machines unfit, and indeed unsafe, for their intended use.

123. Plaintiff and Class members reasonably believed that the Recalled Washing Machines would function as advertised and warranted, and did not know, nor could have known, that the Recalled Washing Machines contained latent defects at the time of purchase.

124. Defendants know of and appreciate the benefit conferred by Plaintiff and Class members and have retained that benefit notwithstanding their knowledge that the benefit is unjust.

125. Under the circumstances, permitting Defendants to retain the proceeds and profits from the sales of the defective Washing Machines described herein would be unjust. Hence, Defendants should be required to disgorge this unjust enrichment.

COUNT VIII
VIOLATION OF STATE CONSUMER PROTECTION LAWS
AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS

126. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

127. Defendants' deceptive trade practices in, inter alia, misrepresenting the quality and character of the Recalled Washing Machines, and selling the Recalled Washing Machines knowing same to be defective, violate the following state consumer statutes:

128. By this Cause of Action, Plaintiff plead on behalf of the Class violations of all the foregoing consumer and deceptive trade practice laws.

COUNT IX
FRAUD AGAINST SAMSUNG

129. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

130. Upon discovering that his Samsung washing machine was subject to recall, Plaintiff contacted Samsung to repair or replace the washing machine. Samsung represented in their recall notice that they would repair any Recalled Washing Machine free of charge to the consumers, including Plaintiff.

131. The truth is that Samsung cannot repair these washing machines. They can perform a retrofit that will reinforce the washing machines, but it will not allow consumers to use these washing machines for the purposes for which they were advertised and purchased. In addition, as part of their agreement with the Consumer Protection Safety Commission, any washing machine that cannot be repaired must be replaced by Samsung at no cost to the consumer. As a result, Samsung is doing everything in its power to keep consumers from accepting the repair option, including scheduling repairs and then having them cancelled, failing to return phone calls for those who wish to schedule repairs, and other stalling tactics, in order to force consumers to accept the rebate option, thereby freeing Samsung from the obligation to replace the washing machines once it becomes apparent that the repair does not fully fix the problem.

132. Upon information and belief, Samsung had no intention of keeping their representation that they would repair consumers' defective washing machines, since it is in Samsung's financial interest to force Plaintiff and other Class members to use Samsung's proffered rebate to purchase a new Samsung washing machine, or to use Samsung's proffered rebate of a lesser amount to purchase another brand of washing machine. Samsung is motivated by the fact that the cost of the rebate is, on information and belief, less expensive than the cost of repair to the Recalled Washing Machines.

133. In addition, Samsung is unable to repair the Recalled Washing Machines. Even after the retrofit is done and the top of each washing machine is reinforced, consumers are still unable to use their washing machines as intended. As a result, Samsung would owe every consumer who has their Recalled Washing Machine repaired a full refund or a new washing machine immediately after the repair has been completed. See Amy Davis, supra ¶ 35.

134. At the time Samsung made the representation that they would repair their Recalled Washing Machines, they were fully aware of the cost savings Samsung would benefit from by "encouraging" owners of the Recalled Washing Machines, including Plaintiff, to take the proffered rebate rather than having their existing washing machine repaired. As a result, Samsung intentionally made it difficult, if not impossible, for Plaintiff and other Class members to obtain retrofits for their Samsung washing machines, hoping consumers would choose to accept the rebate option instead of a retrofit.

135. Even after Plaintiff received a repair and it did not fix his Recalled Washing Machine, Samsung refused to replace his defective Recalled Washing Machine. Plaintiff is now left with a dangerous product that is unusable for its intended purpose.

136. As a result of Samsung's fraud, Plaintiff and Class members are entitled to full compensation for the loss of their Recalled Washing Machines, including time lost in seeking to have the Recalled Washing Machines repaired, and time and money spent finding other means to wash their belongings while they waited for Samsung to repair their Recalled Washing Machines.

COUNT X
VIOLATION OF THE PENNSYLVANIA UNFAIR TRADE PRACTICES AND CONSUMER PROTECTION LAW,
73 Pa. Stat. Ann. § 201-1, et seq.
(On behalf of Plaintiff and the Pennsylvania Subclass against all Defendants)

137. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

138. Defendants unfairly, unconscionably, and deceptively advertised, marketed, sold, and represented the Recalled Washing Machines as safe and effective to members of the Pennsylvania Subclass.

139. Before they advertised, marketed, sold and represented the Recalled Washing Machines, Defendants knew or should have known of the defective nature and unreasonable dangers posed by the Recalled Washing Machines.

140. The Pennsylvania Subclass purchased and used the Recalled Washing Machines for personal use and thereby suffered ascertainable losses as a result of Defendants' actions in violation of the Pennsylvania Unfair Trade Practices and Consumer Protection Law ("UTPCPL")

141. Had Defendants not engaged in the deceptive conduct described herein, Plaintiff and the Pennsylvania Subclass would not have purchased and/or paid for the Recalled Washing Machines and would not have incurred the related costs and injuries.

142. Defendants engaged in the deceptive conduct while at the same time obtaining, under false pretenses, moneys from the injured Plaintiff and Pennsylvania Subclass that would not have been paid had Defendants not engaged in unfair and deceptive conduct.

143. Unfair methods of competition or deceptive acts or practices that were proscribed by law include the following:

- a. Representing that goods or services have sponsorship, approval, characteristics, ingredients, uses, benefits or quantities that they do not have or that a person has a sponsorship, approval, status, affiliation or connection that he does not have;
- b. Representing that goods or services are of a particular standard, quality or grade, or that goods are of a particular style or model, if they are of another;
- c. Failing to comply with the terms of any written guarantee or warranty given to the buyer at, prior to or after a contract for the purchase of goods or services is made;
- d. Making repairs, improvements or replacements on tangible, real or personal property, of a nature or quality inferior to or below the standard of that agreed to in writing;
- e. Engaging in other fraudulent or deceptive conduct which creates a likelihood of confusion or of misunderstanding.

73 Pa. C.S.A. §§ 201-2, et seq.

144. Plaintiff and the Pennsylvania Subclass were injured by the cumulative and indivisible nature of Defendants' conduct. The cumulative effect of Defendants' conducted directed at Plaintiff and the Pennsylvania Subclass was to create demand for and sell the Recalled

Washing Machines. Each aspect of Defendants' conduct combined to artificially create sales of the Recalled Washing Machines.

145. Defendants have a statutory duty to refrain from unfair or deceptive acts or trade practices in the design, development, manufacture, promotion, and sale of the Recalled Washing Machines.

146. Had Defendants not engaged in the deceptive conduct described above, the injured Plaintiff and Pennsylvania Subclass would not have purchased and/or paid for the Recalled Washing Machines and would not have suffered the related damages.

147. Defendants' deceptive, unconscionable, or fraudulent representations and material omissions to Plaintiff and the Pennsylvania Subclass constituted unfair and deceptive acts and trade practices in violation of the state consumer protection statutes listed.

148. Defendants' actions, as complained of herein, constitute unfair competition or unfair, unconscionable, deceptive or fraudulent acts, or trade practices in violation of the UTPCPL.

149. Defendants have engaged in unfair competition or unfair or deceptive acts or trade practices or have made false representations in violation of 73 Pa. Stat. Ann. § 201-1, et seq.

150. Under the UTPCPL, which protects consumers against unfair, deceptive, fraudulent and unconscionable trade and business practices and false advertising, Defendants are the suppliers, manufacturers, advertisers, and sellers, who are subject to liability under the UTPCPL for unfair, deceptive, fraudulent and unconscionable consumer sales practices.

151. Defendants violated the UTPCPL by knowingly and falsely representing that the Recalled Washing Machines were fit to be used for the purpose for which they were intended, when in fact the Recalled Washing Machines were defective and dangerous, and by other acts alleged herein. These representations were made in uniform promotional materials.

152. The actions and omissions of Defendants alleged herein are uncured or incurable deceptive acts under the UTPCPL.

153. Defendants had actual knowledge of the defective and dangerous condition of the Recalled Washing Machines and failed to take any action to cure such defective and dangerous conditions.

154. The injured Plaintiff and the Pennsylvania Subclass relied upon Defendants' misrepresentations and omissions in determining which washing machine to purchase.

155. By reason of the unlawful acts engaged in by Defendants, and as a direct and proximate result thereof, Plaintiff and the Pennsylvania Subclass have suffered ascertainable losses and damages.

156. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' violations of the UTPCPL, the injured Plaintiff and Pennsylvania Subclass have sustained economic losses and other damages and are entitled to statutory and compensatory damages in an amount to be proven at trial.

157. As specifically described in detail above, Defendants knew that the Recalled Washing Machines were defective, could not perform for the purposes they were marketed or intended and were dangerous for use by Plaintiff and the Pennsylvania Subclass.

158. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' representations, Plaintiff and the Pennsylvania Subclass have experienced and/or will experience significant damages, including but not limited to physical injuries and the medical bills resulting therefrom, loss of the use of their Recalled Washing Machines, time spent seeking to have their Recalled Washing Machines replaced, and money spent renting a washing machine or using a laundromat while their Recalled Washing Machine was unusable.

159. Pursuant to 73 Pa. Stat. Ann. § 201-9.2, Plaintiff and the Pennsylvania Subclass request treble damages and attorneys' fees and costs.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff individually and on behalf of the above defined Class, by and through counsel, pray the Court grant the following relief:

A. An Order certifying this action as a class action pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure;

B. An Order appointing Plaintiff Galati as representative for the Class and appointing his counsel as lead counsel for the Class;

C. An order awarding Plaintiff and all other Class members damages in an amount to be determined at trial for the wrongful acts of Samsung described herein;

D. An order awarding Plaintiffs and the Pennsylvania Subclass treble damages pursuant to § 201-9.2 of the Pennsylvania Unfair Trade Practices and Consumer Protection Law, 73 P.S. § 201.9.2.

E. An Order enjoining Samsung, Lowe's, The Home Depot, Best Buy, and Sears, their agents, successors, employees, and other representatives, from engaging in or continuing to engage in the manufacture (in the case of Samsung), marketing, and sale of the defective Recalled Washing Machines; requiring Samsung, Lowe's, The Home Depot, Best Buy and Sears to issue corrective actions including notification, recall, service bulletins, and fully-covered replacement parts and labor, or replacement of the Recalled Washing Machines; and requiring Samsung, Lowe's, The Home Depot, Best Buy, and Sears to preserve all evidence relevant to this lawsuit and to notify Recalled Washing Machine owners, with whom it comes in contact of the pendency of this and related litigation;

F. Restitution as authorized by law;

G. Payment to the Class of all damages associated with the replacement of the defective products and parts, in an amount to be proven at trial;

H. Payment to the Class of all damages associated with lost time in attempting to get Samsung to abide by the terms of the recall;

I. Payment to the Class of all damages associated with the Class's inability to use their Recalled Washing Machines such as fees from renting a washing machine or using a laundromat;

J. An assessment of punitive damages, consistent with the actual harm Samsung has caused and the reprehensibility of its wanton and willful conduct, and the need to punish and deter such conduct;

K. An order awarding attorney's fees pursuant to applicable Federal and State law;

L. Interest as provided by law, including but not limited to pre-judgment and post-judgment interest as provided by rule or statute; and

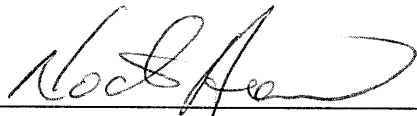

M. Any and all other and further relief as this Court deems just, equitable, or proper.

JURY DEMAND

Pursuant to Rule 38(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff demands a trial by jury for all issues so triable.

warranty (U.S.A)

SAMSUNG WASHER

LIMITED WARRANTY TO ORIGINAL PURCHASER

This SAMSUNG brand product, as supplied and distributed by SAMSUNG ELECTRONICS AMERICA, INC. (SAMSUNG) and delivered new, in the original carton to the original consumer purchaser, is warranted by SAMSUNG against manufacturing defects in materials and workmanship for a limited warranty period of: One (1) year part and labor, Two (2) years Control Board Parts (Part Only), Three (3) years stainless tub part (Part Only), Ten (10) years washing DD motor part (Part Only). This limited warranty begins on the original date of purchase, and is valid only on products purchased and used in the United States. To receive warranty service, the purchaser must contact SAMSUNG for problem determination and service procedures. Warranty service can only be performed by a SAMSUNG authorized service center. The original dated bill of sale must be presented upon request as proof of purchase to SAMSUNG or SAMSUNG's authorized service center. SAMSUNG will provide in-home service during the warranty period at no charge, subject to availability within the contiguous United States. In-home service is not available in all areas.

To receive in-home service, product must be unobstructed and accessible to the service agent. If service is not available, SAMSUNG may elect to provide transportation of the product to and from an authorized service center.

SAMSUNG will repair, replace, or refund this product at our option and at no charge as stipulated herein, with new or reconditioned parts or products if found to be defective during the limited warranty period specified above. All replaced parts and products become the property of SAMSUNG and must be returned to SAMSUNG. Replacement parts and products assume the remaining original warranty, or ninety (90) days, whichever is longer. This limited warranty covers manufacturing defects in materials and workmanship encountered in normal, noncommercial use of this product and shall not apply to the following: damage that occurs in shipment; delivery and installation; applications and uses for which this product was not intended; altered product or serial numbers; cosmetic damage or exterior finish; accidents, abuse, neglect, fire, water, lightning, or other acts of nature or God; use of products, equipment, systems, utilities, services, parts, supplies, accessories, applications, installations, repairs, external wiring or connectors not supplied or authorized by SAMSUNG that damage this product or result in service problems; incorrect electrical line voltage, fluctuations and surges; customer adjustments and failure to follow operating instructions, maintenance and environmental instructions that are covered and prescribed in the instruction book; product removal and reinstallation; problems caused by pest infestations. This limited warranty does not cover problems resulting from incorrect electric current, voltage or supply, light bulbs, house fuses, house wiring, cost of a service call for instructions, or fixing installation errors. SAMSUNG does not warrant uninterrupted or error-free operation of the product.

EXCEPT AS SET FORTH HEREIN, THERE ARE NO WARRANTIES ON THIS PRODUCT EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, AND SAMSUNG DISCLAIMS ALL WARRANTIES INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, INFRINGEMENT OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

NO WARRANTY OR GUARANTEE GIVEN BY ANY PERSON, FIRM, OR CORPORATION WITH RESPECT TO THIS PRODUCT SHALL BE BINDING ON SAMSUNG. SAMSUNG SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR LOSS OF REVENUE OR PROFITS, FAILURE TO REALIZE SAVINGS OR OTHER BENEFITS, OR ANY OTHER SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES CAUSED BY THE USE, MISUSE, OR INABILITY TO USE THIS PRODUCT, REGARDLESS OF THE LEGAL THEORY ON WHICH THE CLAIM IS BASED, AND EVEN IF SAMSUNG HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

NOR SHALL RECOVERY OF ANY KIND AGAINST SAMSUNG BE GREATER IN AMOUNT THAN THE PURCHASE PRICE OF THE PRODUCT SOLD BY SAMSUNG AND CAUSING THE ALLEGED DAMAGE. WITHOUT LIMITING THE FOREGOING, PURCHASER ASSUMES ALL RISK AND LIABILITY FOR LOSS, DAMAGE, OR INJURY TO PURCHASER AND PURCHASER'S PROPERTY AND TO OTHERS AND THEIR PROPERTY ARISING OUT OF THE USE, MISUSE, OR INABILITY TO USE THIS PRODUCT. THIS LIMITED WARRANTY SHALL NOT EXTEND TO ANYONE OTHER THAN THE ORIGINAL PURCHASER OF THIS PRODUCT, IS NONTRANSFERABLE AND STATES YOUR EXCLUSIVE REMEDY.

Some states do not allow limitations on how long an implied warranty lasts, or the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, so the above limitations or exclusions may not apply to you. This warranty gives you specific rights, and you may also have other rights, which vary from state to state.

To obtain warranty service, please contact SAMSUNG at:

SAMSUNG ELECTRONICS AMERICA, INC,	:	NO.
et al.	:

In accordance with the Civil Justice Expense and Delay Reduction Plan of this court, counsel for plaintiff shall complete a Case Management Track Designation Form in all civil cases at the time of filing the complaint and serve a copy on all defendants. (See § 1:03 of the plan set forth on the reverse side of this form.) In the event that a defendant does not agree with the plaintiff regarding said designation, that defendant shall, with its first appearance, submit to the clerk of court and serve on the plaintiff and all other parties, a Case Management Track Designation Form specifying the track to which that defendant believes the case should be assigned.

SELECT ONE OF THE FOLLOWING CASE MANAGEMENT TRACKS:

- (a) Habeas Corpus – Cases brought under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 through § 2255. ()
- (b) Social Security – Cases requesting review of a decision of the Secretary of Health and Human Services denying plaintiff Social Security Benefits. ()
- (c) Arbitration – Cases required to be designated for arbitration under Local Civil Rule 53.2. ()
- (d) Asbestos – Cases involving claims for personal injury or property damage from exposure to asbestos. ()
- (e) Special Management – Cases that do not fall into tracks (a) through (d) that are commonly referred to as complex and that need special or intense management by the court. (See reverse side of this form for a detailed explanation of special management cases.) (✓)
- (f) Standard Management – Cases that do not fall into any one of the other tracks. ()
