

and LVNV FUNDING LLC (collectively “Defendants”) for violations of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1692 et seq. (hereinafter “FDCPA”), which prohibits debt collectors from engaging in abusive, deceptive, and unfair practices.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1331. This is an action for violations of 15 U.S.C. § 1692 et seq.

3. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. §1391(b) because jurisdiction is not founded solely on diversity of citizenship and Plaintiff resides in this jurisdiction.

DEFINITIONS

4. As used in reference to the FDCPA, the terms “creditor,” “communication,” “consumer,” “debt,” and “debt collector” are defined in § 803 of the FDCPA and 15 U.S.C. § 1692a.

JURY DEMAND

5. Plaintiff demands a jury trial on all issues.

III. PARTIES

6. The FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692 et seq., which prohibits certain debt collection practices, provides for the initiation of court proceedings to enjoin violations of the FDCPA and to secure such equitable relief as may be appropriate in each case.

7. Plaintiff EILEEN GREENE is a natural person residing in Essex County, New Jersey and is a “Consumer” as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(3).

8. Based upon information and belief, Defendant J.C. CHRISTENSEN & ASSOCIATES, INC. (“J.C. Christensen”) is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Minnesota with its principle place of located at 200 14th Avenue E, Sartell, Minnesota 56377.

9. Based upon information and belief, Defendant LVNV Funding LLC (“LVNV”) is a Delaware limited liability company with its principal place of business located at 625 Pilot Road, Suite 3, Las Vegas, Nevada 89119.

10. Based upon information and belief, Defendants are in the business of collecting debts in this state. Defendants’ principal purpose is the collection of debts in this state, and Defendants attempt to collect debts alleged to be due another.

11. Each Defendant is a company that uses the mail, telephone, and facsimile and regularly engages in business, the principal purpose of, which is to attempt to collect debts alleged to be due another. Each Defendant is a “Debt Collector” as that term is defined by 15 U.S.C. §1692(a)(6).

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiff brings this action as a state wide class action, pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (hereinafter “FRCP”), on behalf of herself and all New Jersey consumers and their successors in interest (the “Class”), who have received debt collection letters and/or notices from the Defendants which are in violation of the FDCPA, as described in this Complaint.

13. This Action is properly maintained as a class action. The Class consists of:

- All New Jersey consumers who were sent collection letters from Defendants where the alleged current credit is LVNV Funding LLC and the original creditor is Capital One Bank (USA) N.A, and which contain at least one of the alleged violations arising from Defendants' violation of 15 U.S.C. section 1692 et. seq.
- The Class period begins one year to the filing of the original complaint.

14. The Class satisfies all the requirements of Rule 23 of the FRCP for maintaining a class action:

- Upon information and belief, the Class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable because there are hundreds and/or thousands of persons who have received debt collection letters and/or notices from the Defendants that violate specific provisions of the FDCPA. Plaintiff is complaining of a standard form letter and/or notice that is sent to hundreds of persons (See Exhibit A, except that the undersigned attorney has, in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 5.2 partially redacted the financial account numbers in an effort to protect Plaintiff's privacy);
- There are questions of law and fact which are common to the Class and which predominate over questions affecting any individual Class member. These common questions of law and fact include, without limitation:

- a. Whether the Defendants violated various provisions of the FDCPA, including, but not limited to: 15 U.S.C. §§1692d, 1692e and 1692f, and subsections cited therein.
 - b. Whether Plaintiff and the Class have been injured by the Defendants' conduct;
 - c. Whether Plaintiff and the Class have sustained damages and are entitled to restitution as a result of Defendants' wrongdoing, and if so, what is the proper measure and appropriate statutory formula to be applied in determining such damages and restitution; and
 - d. Whether Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to declaratory and/or injunctive relief.
- Plaintiff's claims are typical of the Class, which all arise from the same operative facts and are based on the same legal theories;
 - Plaintiff has no interest adverse or antagonistic to the interest of the other members of the Class;
 - Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interest of the Class and has retained experienced and competent attorneys to represent the Class;
 - A Class Action is superior to other methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims herein asserted. Plaintiff anticipates that no unusual difficulties are likely to be encountered in the management of this class action;

- A Class Action will permit large numbers of similarly situated persons to prosecute their common claims in a single forum simultaneously and without the duplication of effort and expense that numerous individual actions would engender. Class treatment will also permit the adjudication of relatively small claims by many Class members who could not otherwise afford to seek legal redress for the wrongs complained of herein. Absent a Class Action, class members will continue to suffer losses of statutory protected rights as well as monetary damages. If Defendants' conduct is allowed to proceed without remedy they will continue to reap and retain the proceeds of their ill-gotten gains;
- Defendants have acted on grounds generally applicable to the entire Class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the Class as a whole.

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

14. Plaintiff is at all times to this lawsuit, a "consumer" as that term is defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(3).

15. Defendants collect and attempt to collect debts incurred or alleged to have been incurred for personal, family or household purposes on behalf of creditors using the United States Postal Services, telephone or Internet.

16. Defendant is a "debt collector" as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(6).

17. Sometime prior to March 11, 2016, Plaintiff allegedly incurred a financial obligation to Capital One Bank (USA) N.A. (“Capital One”).

18. Capital One is a “creditor” as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(4).

19. Sometime before March 11, 2016, Capital One, either directly or through intermediate transactions, assigned, placed, or transferred the Capital One obligation to Defendant LVNV.

20. Also prior to March 11, 2016, Defendant LVNV, either directly or through intermediate transactions, assigned, placed or transferred the Capital One obligation to Defendant J.C. Christensen for purposes of collection.

21. At the time the Capital One obligation was assigned, placed, or transferred to Defendant J.C. Christensen, such obligation was in default.

22. Defendant J.C. Christensen caused to be delivered to Plaintiff a letter dated March 11, 2016 concerning the alleged Capital One obligation owned by Defendant LVNV, which sought collection of an account balance of $987.70. A copy of said letter is attached as Exhibit A.

23. The March 11, 2016 letter is a “communication” as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(2).

24. Upon receipt, Plaintiff read the March 11, 2016 letter.

25. The alleged Capital One obligation arose out of a transaction in which money, property, insurance or services, which are the subject of the transaction, were primarily for personal, family or household purposes.

26. The March 11, 2016 collection letter states:

Please be aware that if the amount of debt forgiven as a result of settlement is equal to or greater than $600.00, your current creditor maybe required by Internal Revenue Code Section 6050P to report the forgiven debt to the IRS and issue a form 1099c.

(“Credit Reporting Language”)

27. Under 26 C.F.R. §1.6050P-1(d)(2) and (3), only the discharge of principal need be reported:

(2) Interest. The discharge of an amount of indebtedness that is interest is not required to be reported under this section.

(3) Non-principal amounts in lending transactions. In the case of a lending transaction, the discharge of an amount other than stated principal is not required to be reported under this section. For this purpose, a lending transaction is any transaction in which a lender loans money to, or makes advances on behalf of, a borrower (including revolving credits and lines of credit).

(emphasis added.)

28. A collection notice is deceptive when it reasonably can be read to have two or more different meanings, one of which is inaccurate.

29. The least sophisticated consumer would understand this statement to mean that the creditor is required by IRS regulations to report forgiveness of debt on a Form 1099-C for any debt that is cancelled which equals or exceeds $600, irrespective of whether the amount discharged is interest or principal.

30. Although the Defendants had no duty to disclose any potential tax ramifications, when a Defendant chooses to give tax disclosures, it must do so in a way that will not mislead the least sophisticated consumer as to his or her tax consequences.

31. If debt collectors are providing tax advice with regards to the reporting of forgiveness of debt, they cannot provide vague, incomplete and misleading disclosures that leave out the essential element that the reporting of forgiveness of a debt happens only if the principal forgiven exceeds $600, and that reporting of forgiveness of a debt would not happen even if the amount is greater than $600, if the amount forgiven contained interest forgiveness, so long as the principal was less than $600.

32. The 1099-C language included in the collection letter is ambiguous, yet the vagueness and uncertainty does not erase the fundamental mischief and deception that the statement intends to cause to the consumer. A consumer reading this statement will be led to believe that if a settlement erases any amount of debt greater than $600, then the creditor is required to report the forgiveness of debt to the IRS, per the IRS regulations, even if only interest is discharged.

33. Defendants' statement is inherently deceptive and misleading, by giving erroneous and incomplete tax information - because in actual fact and according to IRS regulations, the creditor "will not" be required to report to the IRS forgiveness of debt in an amount greater than $600 in forgiveness, if the amount contained interest.

34. If the creditor wishes to legitimately give tax advice in a sincere manner, then that creditor should specify and make clear to the least sophisticated consumer that only certain amounts require reporting, and that this applies only to principle and not to interest forgiveness.

35. The creditor should also specify what amounts are principal and what part of it is interest, in the amount owed. Any tax advice that does not specify the tax consequences as it applies to the consumer's circumstances is nothing more than a ploy to elicit a more substantial payment from the consumer than the consumer would have paid, had he or she understood the tax reporting consequences.

36. The use of the 1099-C reporting language used by Defendants is an attempt by the debt collector to make the debtor think that the IRS regulations always require the reporting of forgiveness of debt, even if it is only interest. The least sophisticated consumer would reasonably read the letter to mean that the creditor, in all circumstances, will report forgiveness of debt as is required by IRS regulations as long as the debt discharged is more than $600.

37. The least sophisticated consumer may believe that in order to avoid reporting to the IRS, he or she will be have to pay no less than the whole debt less $600.00.

38. The FDCPA does not require that tax consequences be identified in collection letters sent to consumers; but where a debt collector has chosen to threaten the debtor with tax consequences, and has done so inaccurately, the false representation causes detrimental harm to the consumer since it concretely thwarts the consumer's ability to freely navigate a course of action in response to the collection notice. The risk in this type of harm is the detrimental impact to the consumer. And such harm is precisely the kind of infringement of the consumer's best interests that the FDCPA seeks to combat.

39. Such a statement in a collection letter suggests to the least sophisticated consumer that failure to pay will get the consumer into trouble with the IRS.

40. The March 11, 2016 collection letter also states:

Please recognize that interest is accruing on your judgment. Because of interest being added, the amount due on the day you pay may be greater.

("Interest Accruing Language")

41. The Total Amount Due indicated on the March 11, 2016 letter is $987.70. However, based upon the date and the amount of the original judgment, Defendants have decided to waive the collecting any post-judgment interest.

42. As such, Defendants' statement that "interest is accruing on your judgment" is false, deceptive, and misleading to the least sophisticated consumer because Defendants falsely suggest that the amount of the debt will increase when, in fact, no one is charging interest.

43. Such statement makes the least sophisticated consumer uncertain as to the amount allegedly owed to Defendant LVNV, and uncertain as to how much additional interest would continue to accrue.

44. Defendants' false and misleading statement threatening to apply interest is a collection ploy and a deceptive tactic used to trick the least sophisticated consumer that paying less than the full settlement offer amount or not paying immediately would cause the balance to increase.

45. Plaintiff suffered injury in fact by being subjected to unfair and abusive practices of the Defendant.

46. Plaintiff suffered actual harm by being the target of the Defendants' misleading debt collection communications.

47. Defendants violated the Plaintiff's right not to be the target of misleading debt collection communications.

48. Defendants violated the Plaintiff's right to a truthful and fair debt collection process.

49. Defendants used materially false, deceptive, misleading representations and means in its attempted collection of Plaintiff's alleged debt.

50. Defendants' communications were designed to cause the debtor to suffer a harmful disadvantage in charting a course of action in response to Defendants' collection efforts.

51. The FDCPA ensures that consumers are fully and truthfully apprised of the facts and of their rights, the act enables them to understand, make informed decisions about, and participate fully and meaningfully in the debt collection process. The purpose of the FDCPA is to provide information that helps consumers to choose intelligently. The Defendants' false representations misled the Plaintiff in a manner that deprived her of her right to enjoy these benefits, these materially misleading statements trigger liability under section 1692e of the Act.

52. These deceptive communications additionally violated the FDCPA since they frustrate the consumer's ability to intelligently choose his or her response.

53. Plaintiff seeks to end these violations of the FDCPA. Plaintiff has suffered damages including but not limited to, fear, stress, mental anguish, emotional stress and acute embarrassment. Plaintiff and putative class members are entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief, including, declaratory relief, and damages.

54. It is Defendants' policy and practice to send written collection communications in the form exemplified by Exhibit A in an attempt to collect consumer debts in violation of the FDCPA.

55. Defendants used the same procedures in sending the March 11, 2016 collection letters to numerous other New Jersey consumers.

COUNT I

VIOLATIONS OF THE FAIR DEBT COLLECTION PRACTICES ACT

56. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and others similarly situated, repeats and realleges all prior allegations as if set forth at length herein.

57. Defendants violated 15 U.S.C. § 1692d of the FDCPA by engaging in any conduct the natural consequence of which is to harass, oppress, or abuse any person in connection with the collection of a debt.

58. Defendants violated 15 U.S.C. § 1692e of the FDCPA by using any false, deceptive or misleading representation or means in connection with its attempt to collect a debt from Plaintiff.

59. Defendants violated 15 U.S.C. § 1692e(2)(A) by making false representations of the character, amount or legal status of the debt.

60. Defendants violated 15 U.S.C. §1692e(5) by threatening to take any action that cannot legally be taken or that is not intended to be taken.

61. Defendants violated 15 U.S.C. §1692e(10) the use of any false representation or deceptive means to collect or attempt to collect any debt or to obtain information concerning a consumer.

62. Defendants violated 15 U.S.C. §1692f by using unfair and unconscionable means to collect or attempt to collect on a debt.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and others similarly situated, demands judgment against Defendants as follows:

(a) Declaring that this action is properly maintainable as a Class Action and certifying Plaintiff as Class representative and attorney Lawrence Hersh, Esq., as Class Counsel;

(b) Awarding Plaintiff and the Class maximum statutory damages;

- (c) Awarding Plaintiff and the Class actual damages;
- (d) Awarding pre-judgment interest;
- (e) Awarding post-judgment interest;
- (f) Awarding reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and expenses; and
- (g) Awarding Plaintiff and the Class such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS 44

Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

- I.(a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.
- (b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved.)
- (c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".
- II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.Cv.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.
 United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here.
 United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box.
 Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.
 Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; NOTE: federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)
- III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.
- IV. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If the nature of suit cannot be determined, be sure the cause of action, in Section VI below, is sufficient to enable the deputy clerk or the statistical clerk(s) in the Administrative Office to determine the nature of suit. If the cause fits more than one nature of suit, select the most definitive.
- V. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the seven boxes.
 Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.
 Removed from State Court. (2) Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1441. When the petition for removal is granted, check this box.
 Remanded from Appellate Court. (3) Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.
 Reinstated or Reopened. (4) Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date.
 Transferred from Another District. (5) For cases transferred under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.
 Multidistrict Litigation – Transfer. (6) Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1407.
 Multidistrict Litigation – Direct File. (8) Check this box when a multidistrict case is filed in the same district as the Master MDL docket.
PLEASE NOTE THAT THERE IS NOT AN ORIGIN CODE 7. Origin Code 7 was used for historical records and is no longer relevant due to changes in statute.
- VI. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity. Example: U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC 553 Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service
- VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23, F.R.Cv.P.
 Demand. In this space enter the actual dollar amount being demanded or indicate other demand, such as a preliminary injunction.
 Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.
- VIII. Related Cases. This section of the JS 44 is used to reference related pending cases, if any. If there are related pending cases, insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judge names for such cases.

Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.
