CARR MASSI, Individually and on Behalf of All Others Similarly Situated, Plaintiff - against - George Papadopoulos and Kyne’s Corner, LLC. Defendants	COMPLAINT 17cv2617 JURY DEMAND
---	---

Plaintiff, Carr Massi, complaining through her attorney from the Law Offices of James E. Bahamonde, respectfully alleges against Defendants:

STATEMENT OF CLAIM

1. In violation of well-settled, two-decade old law, Defendants have chosen not to remove a variety of unlawful architectural barriers, and have instead chosen to exclude Plaintiff and all other disabled persons, who use wheelchairs and scooters, from having access to and use of Defendants’ public accommodation.
2. Plaintiff files this action for herself and as an action for those similarly situated, complaining of violations of Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12182 et seq., New York State Civil Rights Law § 40-c and 40-d, New York State Human Rights Law § 296 et seq., and New York City [Administrative Code] Human Rights Law § 8-107 et seq.
3. Plaintiff seeks damages, declaratory and injunctive relief, as well as fees and costs against the Defendants.

VENUE AND JURISDICTION

4. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, Plaintiff is now, and at all times mentioned in this complaint, a resident of New York, NY the Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1343, as this action involves federal questions regarding the deprivation of Plaintiff's rights under the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA").

5. The Court has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's allegations arising from Defendants' state and local law violations pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

6. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to this action, alleged herein, occurred in this district.

Plaintiff, complaining for herself and all other residents in the City of New York and State of New York, similarly situated, alleges: (a) the class is so numerous that joinder of all members, whether otherwise required or permitted, is impracticable; (b) there are questions of law or fact common to the class which predominate over any questions affecting only individual members; (c) the claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class; (d) the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class; and (e) a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.

STATUTORY SCHEME

14. The United States Census has indicated that there are more than 1.39 million New Yorkers with mobility disability.

15. Pursuant to the ADA, New York State Human Rights Law, and New York City Human Rights Law, individuals with disabilities are a protected class.

16. It is unlawful for a private entity which owns, leases to or operates a place of public accommodations to discriminate against an individual with a disability.

17. The ADA, New York State Human Rights Law, and New York City Human Rights Law requires a public accommodation to be readily accessible to and usable by a disabled individual.

18. Defendants are required to remove all readily achievable barriers which denies a disabled individual with the opportunity to participate in or benefit from services or accommodations on the basis of disability.

19. Failure to remove all readily achievable architectural barriers is defined as disability discrimination in violation of the ADA, New York State Human Rights Law, and New York City Human Rights Law.

20. The landlord who owns the building that houses a place of public accommodation and the tenant who owns or operates the place of public accommodation have a non-delegable duty to comply with the ADA.

21. The landlord and owner of a property which houses a public accommodation are liable for their tenant's failure to comply with the ADA, New York City Human Rights Law or New York State Human Rights Law. Property leases which contain contradictory language is superseded by the ADA.

22. Discriminatory intent is not required to establish liability under ADA, New York City Human Rights Law and New York State Human Rights Law.

23. If an individual with a disability is dissuaded from entering or receiving the services of a public accommodation because of the existence of an architectural barrier, the landlord and tenant will be liable for discrimination.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

24. Plaintiff has a physical impairment and cannot walk. As a result, she uses a wheelchair for mobility.

25. Defendant GEORGE PAPADOPOULOS owns or leases the commercial property which houses the public accommodation located at 625 Ninth Avenue, New York, New York, 10036 (hereinafter ‘facility’).

26. Defendant KYNE’S CORNER, LLC owns or operates a public accommodation named Two Boots located at 625 Ninth Avenue, New York, NY.

27. Several times in 2016, Plaintiff attempted to enter and use Defendants' public accommodation. However, because of the existence of unlawful architectural barrier – i.e., 5 inch step and entrance does not have any maneuvering clearance – she was unable to enter.

28. Plaintiff resides less than 1 mile from Defendants’ public accommodation and is frequently near Defendants’ facility.

29. The removal of existing architectural barriers is readily achievable.

30. To date, Defendants have failed to remove the architectural barriers.
