COMPLAINT

COLLECTIVE ACTION UNDER 29 U.S.C. § 216(b)

ECF Case

Plaintiff Martha Reynoso Rodriguez ("Plaintiff Reynoso" or "Ms. Reynoso"), individually and on behalf of others similarly situated, by and through her attorneys, Michael Faillace & Associates, P.C., upon her knowledge and belief, and as against Angel's Laundromat Corp. (d/b/a Angels Laundromat), ("Defendant Corporation"), Angel O Sanchez and Anna M Cuervo, ("Individual Defendants"), (collectively, "Defendants"), alleges as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiff Reynoso is a former employee of Defendants Angel's Laundromat Corp. (d/b/a Angels Laundromat), Angel O Sanchez, and Anna M Cuervo.
2. Defendants own, operate, or control a laundromat, located at 9218 Roosevelt Ave, Jackson Heights, NY 11372-7942 under the name "Angels Laundromat."

3. Upon information and belief, individual Defendants Angel O Sanchez and Anna M Cuervo, serve or served as owners, managers, principals, or agents of Defendant Corporation and, through this corporate entity, operate or operated the laundry service as a joint or unified enterprise.

4. Plaintiff Reynoso was an employee of Defendants.

5. Plaintiff Reynoso was employed as a laundry worker at the laundry service located at 9218 Roosevelt Ave, Jackson Heights, NY 11372-7942.

6. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Plaintiff Reynoso worked for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without appropriate minimum wage and overtime compensation for the hours that she worked.

7. Rather, Defendants failed to maintain accurate recordkeeping of the hours worked, failed to pay Plaintiff Reynoso appropriately for any hours worked, either at the straight rate of pay or for any additional overtime premium.

8. Defendants' conduct extended beyond Plaintiff Reynoso to all other similarly situated employees.

9. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Reynoso and other employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without providing the minimum wage and overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

10. Plaintiff Reynoso now brings this action on behalf of herself, and other similarly situated individuals, for unpaid minimum and overtime wages pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. ("FLSA"), and for violations of the N.Y. Labor Law §§ 190 et seq. and 650 et seq. (the "NYLL"), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys' fees and costs.

11. Plaintiff Reynoso seeks certification of this action as a collective action on behalf of herself, individually, and all other similarly situated employees and former employees of Defendants pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

12. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question) and the FLSA, and supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff Reynoso’s state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

13. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c) because all, or a substantial portion of, the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district, Defendants maintain their corporate headquarters and offices within this district, and Defendants operate a laundromat located in this district. Further, Plaintiff Reynoso was employed by Defendants in this district.

PARTIES

Plaintiff

14. Plaintiff Martha Reynoso Rodriguez (“Plaintiff Reynoso” or “Ms. Reynoso”) is an adult individual residing in Queens County, New York.

15. Plaintiff Reynoso was employed by Defendants at Angels Laundromat from approximately 2010 until on or about March 18, 2018.

16. Plaintiff Reynoso consents to being a party plaintiff pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), and brings these claims based upon the allegations herein as a representative party of a prospective class of similarly situated individuals under 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

Defendants

17. At all relevant times, Defendants own, operate, or control a laundromat company, located at 9218 Roosevelt Ave, Jackson Heights, NY 11372-7942 under the name “Angels Laundromat.”

18. Upon information and belief, Angel's Laundromat Corp. (d/b/a Angels Laundromat) is a domestic corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York. Upon information and belief, it maintains its principal place of business at 9218 Roosevelt Ave, Jackson Heights, NY 11372-7942.

19. Defendant Angel O Sanchez is an individual engaging (or who was engaged) in business in this judicial district during the relevant time period. Defendant Angel O Sanchez is sued individually in his capacity as owner, officer and/or agent of Defendant Corporation. Defendant Angel O Sanchez possesses operational control over Defendant Corporation, an ownership interest in Defendant Corporation, and controls significant functions of Defendant Corporation. 20. Defendant Anna M Cuervo is an individual engaging (or who was engaged) in business in this judicial district during the relevant time period. Defendant Anna M Cuervo is sued individually in her capacity as owner, officer and/or agent of Defendant Corporation. Defendant Anna M Cuervo possesses operational control over Defendant Corporation, an ownership interest in Defendant Corporation, and controls significant functions of Defendant Corporation. She determines the wages and compensation of the employees of Defendants, including Plaintiff Reynoso, establishes the schedules of the employees, maintains employee records, and has the authority to hire and fire employees.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

Defendants Constitute Joint Employers

21. Defendants operate a laundromat located in the Jackson Heights section of Queens.

22. Individual Defendants, Angel O Sanchez and Anna M Cuervo, possess operational control over Defendant Corporation, possess ownership interests in Defendant Corporation, and control significant functions of Defendant Corporation.

23. Defendants are associated and joint employers, act in the interest of each other with respect to employees, pay employees by the same method, and share control over the employees.

24. Each Defendant possessed substantial control over Plaintiff Reynoso's (and other similarly situated employees') working conditions, and over the policies and practices with respect to the employment and compensation of Plaintiff Reynoso, and all similarly situated individuals, referred to herein.

25. Defendants jointly employed Plaintiff Reynoso (and all similarly situated employees) and are Plaintiff Reynoso's (and all similarly situated employees') employers within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. 201 et seq. and the NYLL.

26. In the alternative, Defendants constitute a single employer of Plaintiff Reynoso and/or similarly situated individuals.

27. Upon information and belief, Individual Defendants Angel O Sanchez and Anna M Cuervo operate Defendant Corporation as either an alter ego of themselves and/or fail to operate Defendant Corporation as an entity legally separate and apart from themselves, by among other things:

- a) failing to adhere to the corporate formalities necessary to operate Defendant Corporation as a Corporation,
- b) defectively forming or maintaining the corporate entity of Defendant Corporation, by, amongst other things, failing to hold annual meetings or maintaining appropriate corporate records,
- c) transferring assets and debts freely as between all Defendants,
- d) operating Defendant Corporation for their own benefit as the sole or majority shareholders,
- e) operating Defendant Corporation for their own benefit and maintaining control over it as a closed Corporation,
- f) intermingling assets and debts of their own with Defendant Corporation,
- g) diminishing and/or transferring assets of Defendant Corporation to avoid full liability as necessary to protect their own interests, and
- h) Other actions evincing a failure to adhere to the corporate form.

28. At all relevant times, Defendants were Plaintiff Reynoso's employers within the meaning of the FLSA and New York Labor Law. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff Reynoso, controlled the terms and conditions of employment, and determined the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiff Reynoso's services.

29. In each year from 2012 to 2018, Defendants, both separately and jointly, had a gross annual volume of sales of not less than $500,000 (exclusive of excise taxes at the retail level that are separately stated).

30. In addition, upon information and belief, Defendants and/or their enterprise were directly engaged in interstate commerce. As an example, numerous items that were used in the laundry service on a daily basis are goods produced outside of the State of New York.

Individual Plaintiff

31. Plaintiff Reynoso is a former employee of Defendants who was employed as a laundry worker.

32. Plaintiff Reynoso seeks to represent a class of similarly situated individuals under 29 U.S.C. 216(b).

Plaintiff Martha Reynoso Rodriguez

33. Plaintiff Reynoso was employed by Defendants from approximately 2010 until on or about March 18, 2018.

34. Defendants employed Plaintiff Reynoso as a laundry worker.

35. Plaintiff Reynoso regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, such as detergents and other supplies produced outside the State of New York.

36. Plaintiff Reynoso's work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

37. Throughout her employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Reynoso regularly worked in excess of 40 hours per week.

38. From approximately April 2012 until on or about March 18, 2018, Plaintiff Reynoso worked as a laundry worker from approximately 7:00 p.m. until on or about 6:00 a.m., Mondays through Wednesdays and from approximately 6:00 a.m. until on or about 6:00 p.m., Saturdays and Sundays (typically 54 to 58 hours per week).

39. Throughout her employment, Defendants paid Plaintiff Reynoso her wages in cash.

40. From approximately April 2012 until on or about March 18, 2018, Defendants paid Plaintiff Reynoso a fixed salary of $500 per week.

41. Plaintiff Reynoso's pay did not vary even when she was required to stay later or work a longer day than her usual schedule.

42. For example, Defendants required Plaintiff Reynoso to work an additional 1 hour to 4 hours from her scheduled departure time on five occasions from approximately 2012 until on or about 2018, and did not pay her for the additional time she worked.

43. Defendants never granted Plaintiff Reynoso any breaks or meal periods of any kind.

44. Plaintiff Reynoso was not required to keep track of her time, nor to her knowledge, did the Defendants utilize any time tracking device such as punch cards, that accurately reflected her actual hours worked.

45. No notification, either in the form of posted notices or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff Reynoso regarding overtime and wages under the FLSA and NYLL.

46. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Reynoso an accurate statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

47. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff Reynoso, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff Reynoso's primary language), of her rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

48. Defendants required Plaintiff Reynoso to purchase "tools of the trade" with her own funds—including five gloves and three cleaning brushes.

Defendants' General Employment Practices

49. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Reynoso (and all similarly situated employees) to work in excess of 40 hours a week without paying her appropriate minimum wage and overtime compensation as required by federal and state laws.

50. Plaintiff Reynoso was a victim of Defendants' common policy and practices which violate her rights under the FLSA and New York Labor Law by, inter alia, not paying her the wages she was owed for the hours she worked.

51. Defendants' pay practices resulted in Plaintiff Reynoso not receiving payment for all her hours worked, and resulting in Plaintiff Reynoso's effective rate of pay falling below the required minimum wage rate.

52. Defendants habitually required Plaintiff Reynoso to work additional hours beyond her regular shifts but did not provide her with any additional compensation.

53. Defendants willfully disregarded and purposefully evaded recordkeeping requirements of the FLSA and NYLL by failing to maintain accurate and complete timesheets and payroll records.

54. Plaintiff Reynoso was paid her wages in cash.

55. Defendants failed to post at the workplace, or otherwise provide to employees, the required postings or notices to employees regarding the applicable wage and hour requirements of the FLSA and NYLL.

56. Upon information and belief, these practices by Defendants were done willfully to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiff Reynoso (and similarly situated individuals) worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiff Reynoso properly for her full hours worked.

57. Defendants engaged in their unlawful conduct pursuant to a corporate policy of minimizing labor costs and denying employees compensation by knowingly violating the FLSA and NYLL.

58. Defendants' unlawful conduct was intentional, willful, in bad faith, and caused significant damages to Plaintiff Reynoso and other similarly situated former workers.

59. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Reynoso and other employees with accurate wage statements at the time of their payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked; and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL §195(3).

60. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Reynoso and other employees, at the time of hiring and on or before February 1 of each subsequent year, a statement in English and the employees' primary language, containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by New York Labor Law §195(1).

FLSA COLLECTIVE ACTION CLAIMS

61. Plaintiff Reynoso brings her FLSA minimum wage, overtime compensation, and liquidated damages claims as a collective action pursuant to FLSA Section 16(b), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), on behalf of all similarly situated persons (the "FLSA Class members"), i.e., persons who are or were employed by Defendants or any of them, on or after the date that is three years before the filing of the complaint in this case (the "FLSA Class Period").

62. At all relevant times, Plaintiff Reynoso and other members of the FLSA Class were similarly situated in that they had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and have been subject to Defendants' common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans including willfully failing and refusing to pay them the required minimum wage, overtime pay at a one and one-half their regular rates for work in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek under the FLSA, and willfully failing to keep records required by the FLSA.
