UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

Deborah Sacknievich, Nirvana Singh and Charde Lockett, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

VS.

RUI Credit Services, Inc.,

Defendant.

Docket No:

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Deborah Sacknievich, Nirvana Singh and Charde Lockett, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated (hereinafter referred to collectively as "Plaintiffs"), by and through the undersigned counsel, complain, state and allege against RUI Credit Services, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as "Defendant"), as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. This action seeks to recover for violations of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1692, et seq. ("FDCPA").

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- 2. This Court has federal subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1331 and 15 U.S.C. § 1692k(d).
- 3. Venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. §1391(b) because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred in this Judicial District.

4. At all relevant times, Defendant conducted business within the State of New York.

PARTIES

- 5. Plaintiff Deborah Sacknievich is an individual who is a citizen of the State of New York residing in Suffolk County, New York.
- 6. Plaintiff Nirvana Singh is an individual who is a citizen of the State of New York residing in Suffolk County, New York.
- 7. Plaintiff Charde Lockett is an individual who is a citizen of the State of New York residing in Suffolk County, New York.
 - 8. Plaintiffs are "consumers" as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(3).
- 9. On information and belief, Defendant RUI Credit Services, Inc., is a New York Corporation with a principal place of business in Suffolk County, New York.
- 10. Defendant is regularly engaged, for profit, in the collection of debts allegedly owed by consumers.
 - 11. Defendant is a "debt collector" as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(6).
 - 12. Defendant alleges each of the Plaintiffs owe a debt ("the Debts").
- 13. The Debts were primarily for personal, family or household purposes and are therefore "debts" as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(5).
- 14. Sometime after the incurrence of the Debts, Plaintiffs fell behind on payments owed.
- 15. Thereafter, at an exact time known only to Defendant, the Debts were assigned or otherwise transferred to Defendant for collection.
- 16. In its efforts to collect the debt alleged owed by Plaintiff Sacknievich, Defendant contacted Plaintiff Sacknievich by letter ("the Sacknievich Letter") dated April 24, 2017. ("Exhibit 1.")
- 17. In its efforts to collect the debt alleged owed by Plaintiff Singh, Defendant contacted Plaintiff Singh by letter ("the Singh Letter") dated November 16, 2016. ("Exhibit 1.")
- 18. In its efforts to collect the debt alleged owed by Plaintiff Lockett, Defendant contacted Plaintiff Lockett by letter ("the Lockett Letter") dated April 12, 2017. ("Exhibit 1.")
 - 19. The Letters are "communications" as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(2).
 - 20. 15 U.S.C. § 1692g provides that within five days after the initial communication with a consumer in connection with the collection of any debt, a debt collector shall, unless the information is contained in the initial communication or the consumer has paid the debt, send the consumer a written notice containing certain enumerated information.

- 21. The written notice must contain, inter alia, a statement that if the consumer notifies the debt collector in writing within the thirty-day period that the debt, or any portion thereof, is disputed, the debt collector will obtain verification of the debt or a copy of a judgment against the consumer and a copy of such verification or judgment will be mailed to the consumer by the debt collector.
- 22. The written notice must contain, inter alia, a statement that, upon the consumer's written request within the thirty-day period, the debt collector will provide the consumer with the name and address of the original creditor, if different from the current creditor.
- 23. A debt collector has the obligation, not just to convey the required information, but also to convey such clearly.
- 24. Even if a debt collector conveys the required information accurately, the debt collector nonetheless violates the FDCPA if that information is overshadowed or contradicted by other language in the communication.
- 25. Even if a debt collector conveys the required information accurately, the debt collector nonetheless violates the FDCPA if that information is overshadowed by other collection activities during the 30-day validation period following the communication.
- 26. A collection activity or communication overshadows or contradicts the validation notice if it would make the "least sophisticated consumer" uncertain or confused as to her rights.
- 27. The subject Letters each state, "[p]reviously we sent you a letter advising you that we are a debt collection company and . . . [that] [y]our payment for your past due balance has not yet been received."
- 28. Despite the above-described statement concerning a "previous letter," each of the subject letters nevertheless contains the 15 U.S.C. § 1692g disclosures.
- 29. The subject Letters each provide that Plaintiff has 30 days from receipt of the Letter to exercise his or her validation rights.
- 30. If Defendant did actually send each Plaintiff a "previous letter," as each of the subject Letters so states, then the least sophisticated consumer would likely be confused as to whether she has 30 days from receipt of each of the subject Letters to exercise her validation rights, or whether the 30-day period to exercise her validation rights has already begun to accrue in connection with the "previous letter."

- 31. If Defendant did actually send each Plaintiff a "previous letter," as each of the subject Letters so states, then the least sophisticated consumer would likely be uncertain as to whether she has 30 days from receipt of each of the subject Letters to exercise her validation rights, or whether the 30-day period to exercise her validation rights has already begun to accrue in connection with the "previous letter."
- 32. Defendant's conduct, as described, would likely make the least sophisticated consumer confused as to her rights.
- 33. Defendant's conduct, as described, would likely make the least sophisticated consumer uncertain as to her rights.
- 34. 15 U.S.C. § 1692e prohibits a debt collector from using any false, deceptive, or misleading representation or means in connection with the collection of any debt.
- 35. While § 1692e specifically prohibits certain practices, the list is non-exhaustive, and does not preclude a claim of falsity or deception based on any non-enumerated practice.
- 36. 15 U.S.C. § 1692e(10) prohibits the use of any false representation or deceptive means to collect or attempt to collect any debt or to obtain information concerning a consumer.
- 37. The question of whether a collection letter is deceptive is determined from the perspective of the "least sophisticated consumer."
- 38. A collection letter is deceptive under 15 U.S.C. § 1692e if it can reasonably be read by the least sophisticated consumer to have two or more meanings, one of which is inaccurate.
- 39. A collection letter is also deceptive under 15 U.S.C. § 1692e if it is reasonably susceptible to an inaccurate reading by the least sophisticated consumer.
- 40. Even if a debt collector conveys the required information, the debt collector nonetheless violates the FDCPA if it conveys that information in a confusing or contradictory fashion as to cloud the required message with uncertainty.
- 41. As previously alleged, each of the subject Letters states, "[p]reviously we sent you a letter advising you that we are a debt collection company and . . . [that] [y]our payment for your past due balance has not been received."
 - 42. If Defendant did not actually send each Plaintiff a "previously letter," then its representations that it previously sent each Plaintiff a letter in connection with the subject debts is false.

- 43. If Defendant did not actually send each Plaintiff a "previously letter," then its representations that it previously sent each Plaintiff a letter in connection with the subject debts would confuse the least sophisticated consumer as how much time, if any, she has in which to exercise her validation rights under § 1692g.
- 44. The time period in which a consumer may exercise her validation rights under § 1692g is a material piece of information.
- 45. The Letters can reasonably be read by the least sophisticated consumer to mean she has 30 days from receipt of each Letter in which to exercise her validation rights.
- 46. The Letters can reasonably be read by the least sophisticated consumer to mean she has less than 30 days from receipt of each Letter in which to exercise her validation rights.
- 47. The Letters can reasonably be read by the least sophisticated consumer to mean that at the time of receipt each Letter, the period in which to exercise her validation rights has already expired.
- 48. Because the Letters can be read by the least sophisticated consumer to have two or more meanings, one of which is inaccurate, as described above, they are deceptive within the meaning of 15 U.S.C. § 1692e.
- 49. Because the Letters are susceptible to an inaccurate reading by the least sophisticated consumer, as described, they are deceptive within the meaning of 15 U.S.C. § 1692e.
 - 50. The least sophisticated consumer would likely be deceived by the Letters.
- 51. The least sophisticated consumer would likely be deceived in a material way by the Letters.
- 52. Defendant violated §§ 1692e and 1692e(10) by using a false, deceptive, and misleading representation in its attempt to collect a debt.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

53. Plaintiffs bring this action individually and as a class action on behalf of all persons similarly situated in the State of New York from whom Defendant attempted to collect a consumer debt in a confusing, misleading, and deceptive manner as described herein, from one year before the date of this Complaint to the present.

- 54. This action seeks a finding that Defendant's conduct violates the FDCPA, and asks that the Court award damages as authorized by 15 U.S.C. § 1692k.
 - 55. Defendant regularly engages in debt collection.
- 56. The Class consists of more than 35 persons from whom Defendant attempted to collect delinquent consumer debts in a confusing, misleading, and deceptive manner as described herein.
- 57. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of the claims of the Class. Common questions of law or fact raised by this class action complaint affect all members of the Class and predominate over any individual issues. Common relief is therefore sought on behalf of all members of the Class. This class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy.
- 58. The prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the Class would create a risk of inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to the individual members of the Class, and a risk that any adjudications with respect to individual members of the Class would, as a practical matter, either be dispositive of the interests of other members of the Class not party to the adjudication, or substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests. Defendant has acted in a manner applicable to the Class as a whole such that declaratory relief is warranted.
- 59. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect and represent the interests of the Class. The management of the class action proposed is not extraordinarily difficult, and the factual and legal issues raised by this class action complaint will not require extended contact with the members of the Class, because Defendant's conduct was perpetrated on all members of the Class and will be established by common proof. Moreover, Plaintiffs have retained counsel experienced in actions brought under consumer protection laws.

JURY DEMAND

60. Plaintiffs hereby demand a trial of this action by jury.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully request judgment as follows:

a. Certify this action as a class action; and

- b. Appoint Plaintiffs as Class Representatives of the Class, and Plaintiffs' attorneys as Class Counsel; and
- c. Find that Defendant's actions violate the FDCPA; and
- d. Grant damages against Defendant pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1692k; and
- e. Grant Plaintiffs' attorneys' fees pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1692k; and
- f. Grant Plaintiffs' costs; together with
- g. Such other relief that the Court determines is just and proper.
