CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

25
26 Jacob Scheibe (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, by 27 and through undersigned counsel, hereby brings this action against Muscle Feast, LLC (“Muscle 28 Feast”), alleging that “8-Hour Energy Pre-Workout” (“the Products”), a dietary supplement manufactured, packaged, labeled, advertised, distributed, and sold by Defendant, is misbranded and falsely advertised, and upon information and belief and investigation of counsel alleges as follows:

PARTIES

1. Plaintiff Jacob Scheibe is and at all times relevant was a citizen of the state of California, domiciled in San Diego, California.

1 2. Defendant Muscle Feast, LLC is an Ohio limited liability company with its
2 principal place of business and headquarters in Nashport, Ohio. On information and belief,
3 decisions relating to marketing, labelling, and formulation of the Products are made at this
4 corporate headquarters. All members of the limited liability company are citizens and residents
5 of the state of Ohio.

7 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

8 3. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the Class
9 Action Fairness Act, Pub. L. 109-2, 119 Stat. 4 (codified in scattered sections of Title 28 of the 10 United States Code); specifically, under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d), which provides for the original
11 jurisdiction of the federal district courts over “any civil action in which the matter in controversy
12 exceeds the sum or value of $5,000,000, exclusive of interest and costs, and [that] is a class
13 action in which . . . any member of a class of plaintiffs is a citizen of a State different from any 14 defendant.” 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2)(A).
15

16 4. Plaintiff seeks to represent Class members who are citizens of states different from 17 the Defendant.

18 5. The matter in controversy in this case exceeds $5,000,000 in the aggregate,
19 exclusive of interests and costs.

20 6. In addition, “the number of members of all proposed plaintiff classes in the 21 aggregate” is greater than 100. See 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(5)(B).
22

23 7. In the alternative, this Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C.
24 § 1332(a). The amount in controversy exceeds $75,000 exclusive of interest and costs.

25 8. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant because this action arises out
26 of and relates to Defendant’s contacts with this forum.
27
28

1 9. Those contacts include but are not limited to sales of the Products directly to
2 commercial and individual consumers located in this district, including Plaintiff; shipping the 3 Products to commercial and individual consumers in this district, including Plaintiff; knowingly
4 directing advertising and marketing materials concerning the Products into this district through 5 wires and mails, both directly and through electronic and print publications that are directed to 6 commercial and individual consumers in this district; and operating an e-commerce web site
7 that offers the Products for sale to commercial and individual consumers in this district, as well
8 as offering the Products for sale through third-party e-commerce websites, through both of 9 which commercial and individual consumers residing in this district have purchased the 10 Products.
11

12 10. Defendant knowingly directs electronic activity and ships the Products into this 13 district with the intent to engage in business interactions for profit, and it has in fact engaged in 14 such interactions, including the sale of the Products to Plaintiff.
15

16 11. Defendant also sells the Products to retailers and wholesalers in this district for 17 the purpose of making the Products available for purchase by individual consumers in this 18 district.
19

20 12. Plaintiff's losses and those of other Class members were sustained in this district.
21

22 13. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2) because a substantial part of 23 the events or omissions giving rise to Plaintiff's claims occurred within this district.
24

25 14. Venue is also proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(c)(2) because this Court
26 maintains personal jurisdiction over Defendant.
27

28 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

A. Consumers Pay A Premium for “Clean Labels.”

15 15. Across the globe, consumers are increasingly attuned to claims that foods are “all-16 natural,” minimally processed, or otherwise free of artificial flavors and preservatives.
17

1 16. For example, a 2018 survey by L.E.K. Consulting found that overwhelming
2 numbers of consumers were committed or casual adherents to so-called “clean label” food
3 attributes: “No artificial ingredients” (69 percent); “No preservatives” (67 percent); or “All-
4 natural” (66 percent). These were the three most attractive attributes in the consumer survey.
5 Roughly 60 to 70 percent of consumers reported a willingness to pay a price premium for “clean
6 label” foods. See <https://www.lek.com/insights/ei/next-generation-mindful-food-consumption>.

8 17. This consumer preference has led to an explosion in the category of “clean label”
9 foods and beverages. Leading analyst Allied Market Research estimated that the “natural foods
10 and drinks” category would grow by an estimated compound annual growth rate of 13.7 percent
11 from 2016 to 2023, reaching $191 billion in annual sales by 2023. See 12 <https://www.alliedmarketresearch.com/natural-food-and-drinks-market>.

14 18. On or about October 23, 2022, Mr. Scheibe purchased Muscle Feast’s 8-Hour
15 Energy Pre-Workout powder, “All Natural Peach Mango” flavor, from Amazon.com (Order No.
16 111-2760641-6152240) for $43.09 inclusive of tax.

17 19. Mr. Scheibe is a student who has recently sought to lose weight and gain muscle.
18 He carefully reviews labels, including the Products’ labels, to ensure that he consumes only 19 natural ingredients and avoids artificial flavors and ingredients.
20

21 B. Defendant’s Use of Synthetic Flavorings and Deceptive Labels.

22 20. Defendant Muscle Feast formulates, manufactures, and sells a dietary supplement
23 called “8-Hour Energy Pre-Workout.” These dietary supplement powders purport to provide 24 energy to make workouts more effective and efficient and to speed recovery.

25 21. The front label (or “principal display panel”) of the Products prominently state
26 they are “All Natural” and “All Natural Flavored – Sweetened – Colored,” with attention drawn
27 to the claim through use of different colored fonts and graphic elements:

22. Muscle Feast’s Amazon storefront (the content of which the company controls) uses a description of the Products that further highlights that they are “All Natural” and have no “No Artificial Ingredients”:

1 23. These natural flavoring claims are false. The Products are flavored using an
2 artificial flavoring, DL malic acid, that is derived from petrochemicals.

3 24. All flavors of the Products state, on the back label, that they contain “malic acid.”

4 25. While there is a naturally occurring form of malic acid, it is extremely expensive
5 to formulate in large quantities and is almost never used in mass-produced food products.
6 Instead, testing by an independent third-party laboratory has confirmed that the malic acid that 7 Defendant uses in these Products is DL malic acid, a synthetic substance derived from 8 petrochemicals.¹

10 26. This type of malic acid is manufactured in petrochemical plants from benzene or 11 butane—components of gasoline and lighter fluid, respectively—through a series of chemical 12 reactions, some of which involve highly toxic chemical precursors and byproducts.

13 27. Fruit flavors in a food are imparted by the interactions between sugars, acids,
14 lipids, and various volatile compounds. The sweetness or tartness of a fruit flavor is determined
15 by the ratio between the sugars (mainly glucose and fructose) and acids, such as citric and malic
16 acid.

18 28. The quality and consumer acceptability of fruit flavors is based on their perceived 19 sweetness and tartness, which in turn is driven by the ratio between sugars and acids. Fruits such 20 as peaches and mangoes have their own natural ratio of sugars and acids.

21 29. The DL malic acid used in the Products is used to create, simulate, and/or reinforce 22 the sweet and tart taste that consumers associate with the fruit flavors stated on the labels.

23 30. Defendant uses the petrochemical-derived DL malic acid in its Products to create 24 a sweet and tart flavor but pretends otherwise, conflating natural and artificial flavorings,
25 misbranding the Products and deceiving consumers.
26
27

28

¹ DL malic acid is also called d-hydroxybutanedioic acid or (R)-(+)-2-Hydroxysuccinic acid.

1 31. The ingredients on the Products’ label are declared in a way that is misleading and
2 contrary to law, because Defendant designates the ingredient by its generic name, “malic acid,”
3 instead of by its specific name, “DL malic acid.”

4 C. Requirements for Labelling

5 32. Federal regulations promulgated pursuant to the Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act
6 (“FDCA”) require that a food’s label accurately describe the nature of the food product and its 7 characterizing flavors. 21 C.F.R. § 102.5(a).

8 33. Artificial flavor is defined as “any substance, the function of which is to impart
9 flavor, which is not derived from a spice, fruit or fruit juice, vegetable or vegetable juice, edible
10 yeast, herb, bark, bud, root, leaf or similar plant material, meat, fish, poultry, eggs, dairy
11 products, or fermentation products thereof.” 21 C.F.R § 101.22(a)(1).

12 34. Natural flavor is defined as “essential oil, oleoresin, essence or extractive, protein 13 hydrolysate, distillate, or any product of roasting, heating or enzymolysis, which contains the 14 flavoring constituents” from fruits or vegetables, “whose significant function in food is flavoring
15 rather than nutritional.” 21 C.F.R § 101.22(a)(3).

16 35. Any recognizable primary flavor identified directly or indirectly on the front label
17 of a food product, whether by word, vignette, depiction of a fruit, or other means is referred to 18 as a “characterizing flavor.” 21 C.F.R. § 101.22.

19 36. Here, the Products’ labels both state the characterizing flavors (peaches and 20 mangoes) and reinforce the claim that this characterizing flavor is achieved by using only natural 21 flavors through use of fonts and graphic elements.

22 37. If a food product’s characterizing flavor is not created exclusively by the named 23 flavor ingredient, the product’s front label must state that the product’s flavor was simulated or 24 reinforced with either natural or artificial flavorings or both. If any artificial flavor is present

26
27
28

1 which “simulates, resembles or reinforces” the characterizing flavor, the front label must
2 prominently inform consumers that the product is “Artificially Flavored.” 21 C.F.R. §
3 101.22(i)(2).

4 38. A food product’s label also must include a statement of the “presence or absence
5 of any characterizing ingredient(s) or component(s) . . . when the presence or absence of such
6 ingredient(s) or component(s) in the food has a material bearing on price or consumer 7 acceptance . . . and consumers may otherwise be misled about the presence or absence of the 8 ingredient(s) or component(s) in the food.” 21 C.F.R. § 102.5.

9 39. Such statement must be in boldface print on the front display panel and of 10 sufficient size for an average consumer to notice.

11 40. California’s Sherman Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Law, Cal. Health & Saf. Code §
12 109875, et seq., incorporates all food flavoring and additive regulations of the FDCA.

13 41. By changing the ratio between sugars and acids that is naturally found in fruits
14 such as peaches and mangoes, the DL malic acid used in the Products reinforces, simulates, or 15 creates the characterizing flavors, regardless of any other effect it may have or purpose for which 16 it was included.

17 42. DL malic acid is not a “natural flavor” as this term is defined by federal and state
18 regulations and is not derived from a fruit or vegetable or any other natural source. The Products
19 therefore contain artificial flavorings.

20 43. Because the Products contain artificial flavoring, California law requires the 21 Products to display both front- and back-label disclosures to inform consumers that the Products
22 are artificially flavored.

23 44. The Products have none of the required disclosures regarding the use of artificial 24 flavors.

1 45. Plaintiff reserves the right to amend this Complaint to add further products that
2 contain similar label misrepresentations as testing continues.

3 49. Labels are the chief means by which food product manufacturers convey critical 4 information to consumers, and consumers have been conditioned to rely on the accuracy of the 5 claims made on these labels. As the California Supreme Court stated in a case involving alleged 6 violations of the UCL and FAL, “Simply stated: labels matter. The marketing industry is based 7 on the premise that labels matter, that consumers will choose one product over another similar 8 product based on its label.” Kwikset Corp. v. Superior Court, 51 Cal.4th 310, 328 (2011).

10 50. Plaintiff reviewed the label on the Products prior to his purchase, and reviewed
11 the natural flavoring claims being made there and on the company’s Amazon storefront.
12 Consumers such as Plaintiff who viewed the Products’ labels reasonably understood
13 Defendant’s “All Natural” and “All Natural Flavored” statements, as well as its failure to 14 disclose the use of artificially derived malic acid, to mean that the Products contain only natural 15 flavorings. This representation was also false.

17 51. Consumers including Plaintiff reasonably relied on Defendant’s statements such
18 that they would not have purchased the Products from Defendant if the truth about the Products
19 was known, or would have only been willing to pay a substantially reduced price for the Products
20 had they known that Defendant’s representations were false and misleading.

22 52. In the alternative, because of its deceptive and false labelling statements,
23 Defendant was enabled to charge a premium for the Products relative to key competitors’
24 products, or relative to the average price charged in the marketplace.

25 53. Consumers including Plaintiff especially rely on label claims made by food
26 product manufacturers such as Muscle Feast, as they cannot confirm or disprove those claims
27 simply by viewing or even consuming the Products.

28

1 54. Plaintiff suffered economic injury by Defendant's fraudulent and deceptive
2 conduct as stated herein, and there is a causal nexus between Defendant's deceptive conduct and
3 Plaintiff's injury.

4 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

5 55. Plaintiff brings this action individually and as representative of all those similarly
6 situated pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 on behalf of all consumers nationwide
7 who purchased the Products within four years prior to the filing of this Complaint, as well as a
8 subclass of California consumers who purchased the Products within four years prior to the 9 filing of this Complaint.
10

11 56. Excluded from the Class and Subclass are Defendant and its affiliates, parents,
12 subsidiaries, employees, officers, agents, and directors. Also excluded are any judicial officers
13 presiding over this matter and the members of their immediate families and judicial staff.
14

15 57. Plaintiff reserves the right to alter the Class and Subclass definitions, and to amend
16 this Complaint to add additional Subclasses, as necessary to the full extent permitted by 17 applicable law.

18 58. Certification of Plaintiff's claims for class-wide treatment is appropriate because 19 Plaintiff can prove the elements of the claims on a class-wide basis using the same evidence as 20 individual Class members would use to prove those elements in individual actions alleging the 21 same claims.
22

23 59. Numerosity – Rule 23(a)(1): The size of the Class is so large that joinder of all
24 Class members is impracticable. Plaintiff believes and avers there are thousands of Class
25 members geographically dispersed throughout the nation.

26 60. Existence and Predominance of Common Questions of Law and Fact – Rule
27 23(a)(2), (b)(3): There are questions of law and fact common to the Class. These questions
28

1 predominate over any questions that affect only individual Class members. Common legal and 2 factual questions and issues include but are not limited to:

- 3 a. Whether the marketing, advertising, packaging, labeling, and other 4 promotional materials for Defendant’s Products is misleading and deceptive;
- 5 b. Whether a reasonable consumer would understand Defendant’s “All Natural”
6 and “All Natural Flavored” claims to indicate that the Products contained only 7 natural flavorings, and reasonably relied upon those representations;
- 8 c. Whether Defendant was unjustly enriched at the expense of the Plaintiff and 9 Class members;
- 10 d. the proper amount of damages and disgorgement or restitution;
- 11 e. the proper scope of injunctive relief; and
- 12 f. the proper amount of attorneys’ fees.

15 61. Defendant engaged in a common course of conduct in contravention of the laws
16 Plaintiff seeks to enforce individually and on behalf of the Class. Similar or identical violations
17 of law, business practices, and injuries are involved. Individual questions, if any, pale by 18 comparison, in both quality and quantity, to the numerous common questions that predominate
19 this action. The common questions will yield common answers that will substantially advance
20 the resolution of the case.

22 62. In short, these common questions of fact and law predominate over questions that 23 affect only individual Class members.

24 63. Typicality – Rule 23(a)(3): Plaintiff’s claims are typical of the claims of the Class
25 members because they are based on the same underlying facts, events, and circumstances
26 relating to Defendant’s conduct.

27
28

1 64. Specifically, all Class members, including Plaintiff, were harmed in the same way
2 due to Defendant’s uniform misconduct described herein; all Class members suffered similar
3 economic injury due to Defendant’s misrepresentations; and Plaintiff seeks the same relief as 4 the Class members.

5 65. There are no defenses available to Defendant that are unique to the named
6 Plaintiff.

7 66. Adequacy of Representation – Rule 23(a)(4): Plaintiff is a fair and adequate
8 representative of the Class because Plaintiff’s interests do not conflict with the Class members’
9 interests. Plaintiff will prosecute this action vigorously and is highly motivated to seek redress
10 against Defendant.
11

12 67. Furthermore, Plaintiff has selected competent counsel who are experienced in 13 class action and other complex litigation. Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s counsel are committed to 14 prosecuting this action vigorously on behalf of the Class and have the resources to do so.
15

16 68. Superiority – Rule 23(b)(3): The class action mechanism is superior to other 17 available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy for at least the 18 following reasons

- 19 a. the damages individual Class members suffered are small compared to the 20 burden and expense of individual prosecution of the complex and extensive
21 litigation needed to address Defendant’s conduct such that it would be
22 virtually impossible for the Class members individually to redress the wrongs
23 done to them. In fact, they would have little incentive to do so given the 24 amount of damage each member has suffered when weighed against the costs
25 and burdens of litigation;

- b. the class procedure presents fewer management difficulties than individual litigation and provides the benefits of single adjudication, economies of scale, and supervision by a single Court;
- c. the prosecution of separate actions by individual Class members would create a risk of inconsistent or varying adjudications, which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendant; and
- d. the prosecution of separate actions by individual Class members would create a risk of adjudications with respect to them that would be dispositive of the interests of other Class members or would substantively impair or impede their ability to protect their interests.

69. Unless the Class is certified, Defendant will retain monies received as a result of its unlawful and deceptive conduct alleged herein.

70. Unless a class-wide injunction is issued, Defendant will likely continue to advertise, market, promote, and sell its Products in an unlawful and misleading manner, as described throughout this Complaint, and members of the Class will continue to be misled, harmed, and denied their rights under the law.

71. Ascertainability. To the extent ascertainability is required, the Class members are readily ascertainable from Defendant’s records and/or its agents’ records of retail and online sales, as well as through public notice.

72. Defendant has acted on grounds applicable to the Class as a whole, thereby making appropriate final injunctive and declaratory relief concerning the Class as a whole.

VIOLATION OF OHIO CONSUMER SALES PRACTICES ACT (“OCSPA”),
OHIO REV. CODE § 1345.01 et seq.
Nationwide Class

4 73. Plaintiff realleges the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein and, to the
5 extent necessary, pleads this cause of action in the alternative.

6 74. Plaintiff purchased dietary supplements from Defendant for personal, family, or 7 household purposes.

8 75. Plaintiff’s purchase of the Products was a “consumer transaction” within the 9 meaning of OCSPA.

10 76. Defendant is a “supplier” within the meaning of OCSPA.

11 77. Defendant is required by federal regulations to specifically perform certain 12 actions, i.e., state the source of its flavoring accurately, in order to avoid committing an unfair
13 and deceptive act.

14 78. Defendant’s acts and practices, as alleged in this complaint, violate the OCSPA
15 because they were an unfair or deceptive act or practice in connection with a consumer 16 transaction—namely, the sale of mislabelled and/or deceptively labelled dietary supplements as 17 set forth herein. This conduct was intended to result and did result in the sale of these goods to 18 consumers. This conduct includes but is not limited to:

- 19
21 a. Representing that the Products have sponsorship, approval, performance 22 characteristics, accessories, uses, or benefits that they do not have;
- 23 b. Representing that the Products were of a particular standard, quality, grade, style, 24 prescription, or model when they were actually of another;
- 25 c. Advertising goods or services with intent not to sell them as advertised; and
- 26 d. Engaging in other fraudulent or deceptive conduct creating a likelihood of 27 confusion or misunderstanding.
- 28

1 79. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant’s conduct, Plaintiff has been harmed
2 and has suffered ascertainable loss, in that he purchased products that he otherwise would not
3 have had he been told the truth regarding the Products’ flavoring. Meanwhile, Defendant has 4 generated more revenue than it otherwise would have, unjustly enriching itself. Defendant’s
5 violations also affect the public interest.

7 80. Plaintiff is entitled to damages (including treble, punitive, or special damages),
8 equitable relief, reasonable attorney’s fees and costs, declaratory relief, and a permanent
9 injunction enjoining Defendant from its unlawful, fraudulent, and deceitful activity.

10 COUNT 2
11 VIOLATION OF CALIFORNIA BUSINESS & PROFESSIONS CODE
12 SECTION 17200 et seq. — “UNFAIR” CONDUCT
13 California Subclass

14 81. Plaintiff realleges the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein and, to the
15 extent necessary, pleads this cause of action in the alternative.

16 82. Plaintiff has standing to pursue this claim as Plaintiff has suffered injury in fact as 17 a result of Defendant’s actions as set forth herein.

18 83. Defendant’s actions as alleged in this Complaint constitute “unfair” conduct
19 within the meaning of California Business and Professions Code Section 17200, et seq.

20 84. Defendant’s business practices, as alleged herein, are “unfair” because it fails to 21 disclose accurately the synthetic flavoring used in the Products.

22 85. As a result of this “unfair” conduct, Plaintiff expended money and engaged in
23 activities it would not otherwise have spent or conducted.

24 86. Defendant’s wrongful business practices alleged herein constituted, and continue
25 to constitute, a continuing course of unfair competition since it continues to market and sell its
26 products in a manner that offends public policy and/or in a fashion that is immoral, unethical,
27 oppressive, unscrupulous and/or substantially injurious to its customers.
28

1 87. Defendant publicly disseminated untrue or misleading representations regarding
 2 the flavoring label claims of its Products, which it knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care
 3 should have known, were untrue or misleading.

4 88. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code Section 17203, Plaintiff seeks an order
 5 of this court enjoining Defendant from continuing to engage in “unfair” business practices and 6 any other act prohibited by law, including those acts set forth in this Complaint, and further seek 7 all other relief allowable under Business and Professions Code Section 17200, et seq.

 California Subclass

12 89. Plaintiff realleges the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein and, to the 13 extent necessary, plead this cause of action in the alternative.

14 90. Plaintiff has standing to pursue this claim as Plaintiff has suffered injury in fact as
 15 a result of Defendant’s actions as set forth above.

16 91. Defendant’s actions as alleged in this Complaint constitute “fraudulent” conduct
 17 within the meaning of California Business and Professions Code Section 17200 et seq.
 18

19 92. Defendant’s business practices, as alleged herein, are “fraudulent” because it fails
 20 to disclose accurately the synthetic flavoring used in the Products.

21 93. As a result of this “fraudulent” conduct, Plaintiff expended money and engaged in
 22 activities it would not otherwise have spent or conducted.

23 94. Defendant’s wrongful business practices alleged herein constituted, and continue
 24 to constitute, a continuing course of unfair competition since it continues to market and sell its
 25 products in a manner that offends public policy and/or in a fashion that is immoral, unethical,
 26 oppressive, unscrupulous and/or substantially injurious to its customers.
 27

1 103. Defendant publicly disseminated untrue or misleading representations regarding

10 VIOLATION OF CALIFORNIA BUSINESS &
11 PROFESSIONS CODE SECTION 17500 *et seq.
12 California Subclass

13 105. Plaintiff realleges the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein and, to the
14 extent necessary, pleads this cause of action in the alternative.

15 106. Plaintiff has standing to pursue this claim as Plaintiff has suffered injury in fact as
16 a result of Defendant’s actions as set forth above.

17 107. Defendant engaged in advertising and marketing to the public and offered for sale
18 advertising services on a nationwide basis, including in California.

19 108. Defendant engaged in the advertising and marketing alleged herein with the intent
20 to directly or indirectly induce the sale of the Products to consumers.

21 109. Defendant’s advertisements and marketing representations regarding the 22 characteristics of the Products were false, misleading, and deceptive as set forth above.

23 110. At the time it made and disseminated the statements alleged herein, Defendant
24 knew or should have known that the statements were untrue or misleading, and acted in violation
25 of Business and Professions Code Section 17500, et seq.

26 111. Plaintiff seeks injunctive relief and all other relief allowable under Business and 27 Professions Code Section 17500, et seq.

1 COUNT 6
2 VIOLATION OF THE CONSUMER LEGAL REMEDIES ACT,
3 CAL. CIV. CODE § 1750 *ET SEQ.
4 California Subclass

5 46. Plaintiff realleges the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein and, to the
6 extent necessary, pleads this cause of action in the alternative.

7 47. Plaintiff is a “consumer” within the meaning of the Consumer Legal Remedies
8 Act (“CLRA”), Cal. Civ. Code § 1761(d).

9 48. The sale of Defendant’s Products to Plaintiff and Class members was a 10 “transaction” within the meaning of the CLRA, Cal. Civ. Code § 1761(e).

11 49. The Products purchased by Plaintiff and Class members are “goods” within the 12 meaning of the CLRA, Cal. Civ. Code § 1761(a).

13 50. As alleged herein, Defendant’s business practices are a violation of the CLRA
14 because Defendant deceptively failed to reveal facts that are material in light of the flavoring
15 representations that were made by Defendant on the labels of its Products.

16 51. Defendant’s ongoing failure to provide material facts about its Products on its 17 labels violates the following subsections of Cal. Civ. Code § 1770(a) in these respects:

- 18
- 19 a. Defendant’s acts and practices constitute misrepresentations that its Products have 20 characteristics, benefits, or uses which they do not have;
 - 21 b. Defendant misrepresented that its Products are of a particular standard, quality, 22 and/or grade, when they are of another;
 - 23 c. Defendant’s acts and practices constitute the advertisement of goods, without the 24 intent to sell them as advertised;
 - 25 d. Defendant’s acts and practices fail to represent that transactions involving its 26 Products involve actions that are prohibited by law, particularly the use of 27 misleading nutritional labelling; and 28

1 e. Defendant's acts and practices constitute representations that its Products have
2 been supplied in accordance with previous representations when they were not.

3 52. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff and the Class have been irreparably harmed,
4 entitling them to injunctive relief, disgorgement, and restitution.

5 53. Pursuant to Cal. Civ. Code § 1782, Plaintiff notified Defendant in writing of the 6 particular violations of the CLRA described herein and demanded Defendant rectify the actions
7 described above by providing complete monetary relief, agreeing to be bound by their legal
8 obligations and to give notice to all affected customers of their intent to do so. Plaintiff sent this 9 notice by certified mail to Defendant, at least 30 days before the filing of this Complaint.

10 54. Pursuant to Cal. Civ. Code §§ 1770 and 1780, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled 11 to recover actual damages sustained as a result of Defendant's violations of the CLRA. Such 12 damages include, without limitation, monetary losses and actual, punitive, and consequential 13 damages, in an amount to be proven at trial.

14 55. Pursuant to Cal. Civ. Code §§ 1770 and 1780, Plaintiff is entitled to enjoin
15 publication of misleading and deceptive nutritional labels on Defendant's Products and to 16 recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

19 COUNT 7
20 UNJUST ENRICHMENT
21 Nationwide Class

22 56. Plaintiff realleges the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein and, to the
23 extent necessary, pleads this cause of action in the alternative.

24 57. Defendant, through its marketing and labeling of the Products, misrepresented and 25 deceived consumers regarding the flavoring in the Products.

26 58. Defendant did so for the purpose of enriching itself and it in fact enriched itself
27 by doing so.

28

1 59. Consumers conferred a benefit on Defendant by purchasing the Products,
2 including an effective premium above their true value. Defendant appreciated, accepted, and
3 retained the benefit to the detriment of consumers.

4 60. Defendant continues to possess monies paid by consumers to which Defendant is 5 not entitled.

6 61. Under the circumstances it would be inequitable for Defendant to retain the benefit
7 conferred upon it and Defendant's retention of the benefit violates fundamental principles of 8 justice, equity, and good conscience.

9 62. Plaintiff seeks disgorgement of Defendant's ill-gotten gains and restitution of 10 Defendant's wrongful profits, revenue, and benefits, to the extent, and in the amount, deemed
11 appropriate by the Court, and such other relief as the Court deems just and proper to remedy
12 Defendant's unjust enrichment.

13 63. Plaintiff has standing to pursue this claim as Plaintiff has suffered injury in fact as
14 a result of Defendant's actions as set forth above.

COUNT 8
BREACH OF EXPRESS WARRANTY

17
18
19 64. Plaintiff realleges the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein and, to the
20 extent necessary, pleads this cause of action in the alternative.

21 65. Defendant, as the designer, manufacturer, marketer, distributor, and/or seller,
22 expressly warranted that the Products contain only "Natural Flavors" and "Natural Fruit
23 Flavors." Defendant intentionally highlights this language by using bolded fonts and setting
24 these statements out graphically in insets and callouts.
25
26
27
28

1 66. The front labeling with the representations of fruits is also misleading and further
2 creates an express warranty to support the representation that the Products contain only “Natural
3 Flavors” and “Natural Fruit Flavors.”

4 67. Defendant’s express warranties, and its affirmations of fact and promises made to 5 Plaintiff and the Class and regarding the Products, became part of the basis of the bargain
6 between Defendant and Plaintiff and the Class, which creates an express warranty that the 7 Products would conform to those affirmations of fact, representations, promises, and 8 descriptions.

10 68. The Products do not conform to the express warranty that the Products were “All 11 Natural” and contain only “All Natural Flavored,” because they are flavored by and contain 12 ingredients that are unnatural and synthetic, i.e., DL malic acid.
13

14 69. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendant’s breach of express warranty,
15 Plaintiff and Class members have been injured and harmed because: (a) they would not have
16 purchased the Products on the same terms if they knew the truth about the Products’ unnatural
17 ingredients; (b) they paid a price premium based on Defendant’s express warranties; and (c) the 18 Products do not have the characteristics, uses, or benefits that were promised.
19

20 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

21 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully request the Court grant the following relief against 22 Defendant:

- 23 a. Certifying the Class;
- 24 b. Declaring that Defendant violated the OCSPA, CLRA, UCL, and FAL;
- 25 c. Awarding actual and other damages as permitted by law, and/or ordering an 26 accounting by Defendant for any and all profits derived by Defendant from the 27 unlawful, unfair, and/or fraudulent conduct and/or business practices alleged herein;

- d. Ordering an awarding of injunctive relief as permitted by law or equity, including enjoining Defendant from continuing the unlawful practices as set forth herein, and ordering Defendant to engage in a corrective advertising campaign;
- e. Ordering Defendant to pay attorneys' fees and litigation costs to Plaintiff;
- f. Ordering Defendant to pay both pre- and post-judgment interest on any amounts awarded; and
- g. Such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

TRIAL BY JURY IS DEMANDED ON ANY COUNTS SO TRIABLE.
