Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of your credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a security freeze, you may need to provide the following information, depending on whether you make the request online, by phone, or by mail:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.);
7. Social Security Card, pay stub, or W2;
8. If you are a victim of identity theft, include a copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft.

Should you wish to place a credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

Under Massachusetts law, you have the right to obtain any police report filed in regard to this incident. If you are the victim of identity theft, you also have the right to file a police report and obtain a copy of it.

You may further educate yourself regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps you can take to protect your personal information by contacting the consumer reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission, or your state Attorney General. The Federal Trade Commission may be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. You can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. You have the right to file a police report if you ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, you will likely need to provide some proof that you have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement and your state Attorney General. This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement.

We understand you may have questions related to this event. If so, please call our dedicated assistance line at 1-833-998-7774 Monday through Friday between 8:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. ET (excluding major U.S. holidays). You may also write to UNBH at 2602 Blodgett St., Houston, TX 77004.

Notice of Data Security Incident

Unity National Bank of Houston (“UNBH”) recently discovered an incident that impacted the privacy of certain information in its possession. This notice provides an overview of the incident, our response, and steps individuals may take to better protect themselves should you wish to do so.

What Happened? On July 2, 2024, UNBH became aware of suspicious activity in an employee’s email account. UNBH immediately launched an investigation, with the assistance of third-party forensic specialists, to determine the nature and scope of the activity. Through the investigation, we determined that an unauthorized actor gained access to the email accounts of certain UNBH employees between July 2 and July 3, 2024. Thereafter, UNBH undertook a comprehensive review of the contents of these email accounts to assess what information was contained therein and to whom it related. On March 10, 2025, we finalized this review and determined that information related to certain customers was impacted.

What Information Was Involved? The information potentially at risk varies by individual, but may include: name, address, date of birth, Social Security number, driver’s license number, financial account information, health insurance information, medical information, and passport number.

What is UNBH Doing? UNBH takes the confidentiality, privacy, and security of information in its care very seriously. Upon learning of this incident, UNBH conducted a diligent investigation to confirm the full nature and scope, took prompt steps to ensure the security of its email tenant, and conducted a comprehensive review of the information potentially affected. UNBH has implemented additional security measures to further protect its environment.

Additionally, UNBH is mailing notice letters to potentially affected individuals for whom we have address information beginning on or about April 8, 2025. If you believe you could have been affected but have not received a notice letter, you may call the phone number below.

What You Can Do. UNBH encourages you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud by reviewing your account statements and monitoring your free credit reports for suspicious activity and to detect errors. UNBH further encourages you to review the below Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Your Information which contains guidance regarding what you can do to better protect against possible misuse of your information.

For More Information. We understand individuals may have questions about this incident that are not addressed in this notice. If you have questions, please call 1-833-998-774 Monday through Friday from 8:00 am to 8:00 pm ET, excluding holidays. You may also write to UNBH at 2602 Blodgett St., Houston, TX 77004.
